Princess Views Latest Crowns

In the company of her personal hat designer, Aage Tharrup, Princess Elizabeth, England's future queen, looks over the latest in crowns, brims and trimmings at a London millinery preview. The off-the-face bonnet shown above is one of Designer Tharrup's creations. Touched off with a generous silver bow, it was considered a startling change from the customary conservative headpiece of the royal family. She and her sister will soon start on a royal tour of South Africa. (International)

St. Mary's Church Now Entirely Free Of Debt

St. Mary's church is now entirely free of debt. This happy situation was announced by the pastor of the church, Rev. Francis M. McCarter, who stated that the mortgage on the church is entirely liquidated, the current expenses are all met, and there is a comfortable balance in the church treasury.

The cornerstone of St. Mary's church was laid in 1925 with the church being occupied many months later. At the time of its dedication it represented a total investment of about $400,000. Under the leadership of Very Rev. P. F. O'Shea, then pastor, considerable of the debt was paid. Father O'Shea was succeeded by Rev. P. J. McKenna who did not too many years after his installation as pastor.

Came Here In 1941
The present pastor of the church, Rev. Francis M. McCarter assumed the pastoral duties here in 1941 and found the debt upon the church amounted to $78,287. He immediately set about providing a plan for consistent debt reduction and this plan has been followed since. In addition to the debt of $78,287 the congregation of St. Mary's has installed stained glass windows in the church at a cost of approximately $10,000, purchased property adjoining the church property at a cost of $12,000 and made improvements. Hit-Run Motorist Kills Man; Badly Injures Woman

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Stephen Knapp, 37, was killed instantly today at a North Philadelphia intersection, and his wife, Marian, 39, was critically injured when they were mowed down by a speeding hit-run motorist in a black sedan.

Police said the motorist plowed into the victims as they stepped off a curb. Mrs. Knapp vainly tried to shove her husband out of the way as the car veered toward them, and in doing so was dragged along the street.

A widespread search of garages was instituted immediately in hopes of finding the death car. Police said the grille must have been smashed because pieces of it, together with glass from a headlight, were found at the scene.

Marshall Will Attend Moscow Big Four Parley

Announcement May Indicate Plan To Secure Settlement Of Problems With Soviet

NUMEROUS ISSUES AFFECT FAR EAST

By JOHN A. REICHMANN (By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Secretary of State George C. Marshall's announced intention to attend the "Big Four" foreign ministers' Moscow meeting was interpreted today to mean that he will seek a showdown with Russia on outstanding issues.

These issues, outside the drafting of the German and Austrian peace treaties, include:

1. Processes for arriving at a peace treaty with Japan, which has been placed in the background by United States action in seeking a settlement in Europe first.
2. The question of removals of Japanese heavy industry from Manchuria, estimated to be valued at 100 million dollars. The U. S. maintains these should be a part of reparations payable, chiefly to China, but must suffer from Japanese aggression.
3. Settlement of the dispute over Korea. Although both Russia and the United States are pledged to give that country economic and political independence, no progress has been made due to Russia's boycott of conferences in Seoul.
4. Repatriation of Japanese war prisoners from Russia. These were removed from Manchuria after the Soviet's belated entry into the Far Eastern war.

Annual Meeting And Wool Show Will Take Place Next Saturday At Liberty Grange
Plans have been completed by President R. P. Peebles and the officers of the Lawrence County Wool Growers association for the annual meeting and wool show which will take place in Liberty Grange hall Saturday, Feb. 1.

The meeting will convene at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning and at the noon hour the usual lamb dinner will be served by the ladies of the grange.

Prizes for the wool show will be contributed as usual by the First National Bank of Lawrence county.

The speakers will include W. B. Connell, sheep and wool expert of Penn State college, who will talk on sheep management and the market outlook. Henry Menuson, entomologist of Penn State college will discuss control of external parasites in livestock.

The officers of the association, besides President Peebles, are: Guy Fullerton, vice president, and W. F. McCracken, secretary and treasurer.

Forecast Rent Increases Soon

Government Works Out Plan To Grant Relief To 'Hardship' Landlords

By CHARLES B. SEIB (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Thousands of the nation's tenants faced rent increases today as the government worked out details of its program to grant relief to "hardship" landlords.

Rent controls will be relaxed through a broadening of rules governing landlords who claim that present ceilings impose hardships on them.

The scheduled revision of controls was announced by Maj. Gen. Philip Fleming, chief of the office of temporary controls, and verified by price control commissioner, Max McCullough. But, neither disclosed the scope of the relaxation.

Fleming said that he had instructed rent control officials to "liberalize" their treatment of rent increases applications. He indicated, however, that he felt strongly that rent controls should be retained and extended by Congress beyond the present expiration date of June 30.

McCullough would not reveal whether the new policy will mean the line on rent control has been broken. He also declined to estimate the percentage of tenants who might be affected.

In general, he said the new regulations will provide for broadening of provisions under which rent adjustments may be considered. He added that a definite announcement on the new policy will be made next week.

Doomed Man Hears Another Prisoner Confesses Murder

Second Prisoner Said To Be 'Exact Double' Of Man Tried And Convicted

LONDON, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Walter Rowland, condemned to die on the gallows for the murder of a woman, was notified in his cell today that another convict in another prison confessed the crime.

The other convict was said to be Rowland's "exact double".

Rowland, 38, was found guilty at Manchester of beating a woman to death on the site of a blitzed building at Deansgate October 20.

Upon hearing the verdict of the court, he cried out:

"May God forgive you. You've condemned an innocent man."

Detective Inspector Stainton revealed that the unnamed prisoner who confessed the crime was serving a six months term for house-breaking.

The detective added:

"From what I've heard, it's no wonder the prosecution witnesses were mistaken in their identification."

The prisoners' statement will be submitted to the crown prosecutor as soon as possible.

Quake Reported Off Lower California

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25.—(INS)—The Franklin Institute today reported an earthquake of moderate proportions near lower California, off the coast of Mexico.

Dr. Roy K. Marshall, director of the institute's seismograph department, said the tremor, one of several, occurred at 10:59 last night.

FIND MAN'S BODY

SOUTH HEIGHTS, Pa., Jan. 25.—(INS)—Police today sought the identity of a man whose charred body was found in a slag dump near South Heights.

The discovery was made by three youths and their dogs.

County Detective M. J. Kane said he believed the man lived nearby and apparently had wandered into the dump and was overcome by fumes from the slag.

Mystery Letter Latest Factor In Police Hunt For Mutilation Killer

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Police today worked over the hottest lead yet tossed their way in the baffling mutilation murder of Elizabeth Short, "The Black Dahlia," whose dismembered body was found 10 days ago in a vacant lot.

A letter, believed to have been mailed by the mad killer in downtown Los Angeles, was turned over to police by post office authorities. The envelope, soaked in gasoline, was addressed with letters clipped from newspapers, to:

"The Los Angeles Examiner and other papers."

Detectives said it definitely contained items taken from Miss Short's purse after she was tortured and hacked to death.

War Secretary Will Be Called At May's Trial

Other Top Officials May Also Be Called To Testify In Garsson Case

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(INS)—The Justice department said today that Secretary of War Patterson and other top officials will be called to testify against former Rep. Andrew J. May and his co-defendants in the Garsson war profits conspiracy trial.

A spokesman who is actively engaged in prosecution of May, Dr. Henry M. Garsson, Murray Garsson and Joseph P. Freeman declared:

"In order to present the best evidence we will summon the best witnesses."

Only One Phase
"These will include the secretary of war, Maj. Gen. William N. Porter, Maj. Gen. Alden N. Walt, and other high-ranking persons whom May is accused of having approached in his efforts to aid the Garsson companies."

The Justice department official added that the evidence which led to indictment of May, the Garssons and Freeman "covered only one phase" of the Garsson munitions empire operations.

He pointed out that the FBI is pressing a vigorous probe into the ramifications of the 78 million dollar combine of which May allegedly was the congressional "guardian angel" in his capacity as chairman of the House Military Affairs committee.

New Clues Spur Kidnap Hunt In California

LODI, Calif., Jan. 25.—(INS)—Search for the kidnaper of 17-year-old Alice Devine, daughter of a wealthy Lodi grape grower, was spurred on today by important new clues and added detail to the man's description.

A small white button and two pieces of thread believed to have been ripped from his coat were retrieved by investigators at the isolated spot near Lodi where Alice told officers she had first struggled with the man.

The attractive high school girl was seized Monday night, thrust into the compartment of her father's car after a fierce struggle and taken to an auto court on the outskirts of Sacramento.

Pieces of clothing belonging to the girl also were sent to the state capital of Sacramento for analysis along with several pieces of gauze and a copy of a $10,000 ransom note.

Miss Devine said the gauze had been used by the kidnaper, who tied her to a bed in the auto court.

When the kidnaper "became frightened and fled Tuesday afternoon, the girl worked herself free from her bonds and escaped."

A new and somewhat different description of the kidnaper also was broadcast by Lodi police and the state bureau of criminal identification.

Big Haul Made By Holdup Gang At Coney Island

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Seven men, masked and armed, held up the Silver Baths in Coney Island early today and escaped with loot estimated at between 25 and 50 thousand dollars.

Two other men waited outside in two getaway cars.

The bandits tied up two attendants and escaped with 200 Bath's receipts and 150 safe deposit boxes. It was the second major holdup in two days in New York City. Yesterday three bandits held up the business office of the Brooklyn Eagle and fled with between 20 and 25 thousand dollars.

Seven Men In Gang
Police said the seven men, with handkerchiefs adjusted as masks over their faces and carrying pistols, entered the office of the Baths and told the night manager, Bernie Hellman, 50:

"Give us your keys and you won't get hurt."

Hellman handed them a master key to the nearly 300 safety deposit boxes in a steel cabinet in the office. Then he was tied with rope to an office chair.

The men, evidently familiar with the layout of the building, went swiftly and efficiently to work, removing 150 locked boxes filled with watches, jewelry and money belonging to patrons.

Jack Leibowitz, a porter, found working in a locker room, was brought to the office and tied up.

WOMAN PLUNGES TO HER DEATH

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Mrs. Adeline Williams, 35-year-old mother of two, plunged 60 feet to her death from the McKees Rocks bridge to the Pennsylvania railroad tracks below. Her husband, Fred, said his wife had been in ill health.

Twelve Die In Plane Crash Near London

Plane Plummets To Earth Shortly After Take Off From Croyden Airport

LONDON, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Twelve persons were killed today when a British transport plane crashed at Croyden airport moments after taking off for Africa.

The announcement of casualties by airport officials said five others were injured.

The plane, a chartered craft enroute from the airport near London to Rhodesia, reached mid-air before plummeting to earth where it crashed into a parked airliner.

Four of the persons were rescued by airport workers.

Others were trapped in the flaming wreckage.

Fire-fighting apparatus rushed onto the field and immediately began battling the blaze.

Safe Robbery Is Foiled Today

Safe Taken Out Of Moravia Street Office But Is Discovered Unopened

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Uncle Sam's income tax sleuths are hot on the trail of alleged income tax evaders in the lower income brackets.

That is what Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder told members of the Bankers club of Pittsburgh last night. He said the drive to stamp out tax dodging has spread beyond the scope of the treasury's concern.

With black marketers and war profiteers, Snyder said, the treasury is calling to task delinquents of the middle and lower income groups who apparently thought they were fairly safe.

The treasury secretary told the bankers that during the year and a half the drive has been in progress assessments of taxes and penalties over and above original returns have exceeded two billion dollars, adding:

"Many tax evasion attempts are discovered by means of a treasury order calling on banks to report currency transactions of an unusual nature—an effective instrument in uncovering black market operations."

London Hails Stalin's Move

Believe Misunderstanding Over Anglo-Soviet Treaty Of Alliance Is Cleared Up

LONDON, Jan. 25.—(INS)—London diplomatic circles hailed Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin's action in clearing up the misunderstanding over British sentiment regarding the Anglo-Soviet treaty of alliance today.

They particularly were gratified by the apparent acceptance—at least in principle—by Stalin of the British principle that the 20-year pact be extended to 50 years.

In his reply yesterday to Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's explanation of his December 22nd speech, which Pravda interpreted as voiding the treaty, Stalin declared:

"It is now clear that you and I share the same viewpoint in regard to the Anglo-Soviet treaty."

The Russian leader added:

"As regards extension of the treaty, to which special reference was made in the British statement, I must say that if one is to speak seriously of such an extension then, before extending the treaty, it is necessary to change it, freeing it from reservations which weaken the treaty."

Search In Canada For College Girl Missing Two Months

Extend 'Steel' Wage Contracts Until April 30

'Big Steel' And C. I. O. Steel Workers Agree On Extension Of Present Contract

MAY BE PATTERN FOR OTHER UNIONS

By NORMAN AGATHON (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 25.—

The extension of "big steel" collective bargaining contract by the United Steel Workers was the basis for speculation today in labor circles that other large CIO unions plan to follow a similar pattern.

Labor leaders attached considerable significance to a secret meeting in Pittsburgh between President Walter Reuther of the automobile workers, President Albert J. Fitzgerald of the United Electrical Workers, and CIO President Philip Murray, who also heads the steel workers.

Decline Comment
While officials of the "big three" labor unions declined comment on their meeting, union chieftains said they believe Reuther and Fitzgerald were summoned into the special meeting to discuss contract extension in the automobile and electrical industry.

The steel workers union extended their collective bargaining contract with the five U. S. Steel subsidiaries until April 30.

Murray said he hoped other steel companies whose contracts expire around Feb. 15 would agree to an extension of their wage pacts until April 30.

The steel workers chieftain said: "We understand some of the problems confronting management, such as their uncertainty as to their 'liability in potential suits.'"

Extension Requested
Murray said the request for extension was made by Vice President (Continued on Page Two)

Economists See No Depression In Sight In U. S.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Jan. 25.—(INS)—Three leading economists were agreed today that no major depression is in sight but that the country might experience a slump following the present business boom.

The experts were Woodlief Thomas, member of the board of governors of the Federal Reserve System; Ragnar D. Naess, New York investment counsel, and Alan H. Temple, vice president of the National City Bank of New York.

Thomas told the annual meeting of the American Economic association that the government is no longer the dominant stimulating factor in the nation's economy but that the consumer is determining the trend of events.

Gardeners are getting itchy for the feel of earth and spade, but they'll be fooled, I reckon, for this won't last long, I'm afraid. Robins now are coming northward and the grass is turning green. Foremen's Club Hears Pitt Coach Wes Fesler

It seems a pity that every high school football player, with their fathers, couldn't have been in the New Castle Country club dining room Friday night. The Foremen's club of the United Engineering and Foundry company held its monthly meeting and for this meeting Coach Wes Fesler of the University of Pittsburgh was the principal speaker.

Mr. Fesler put football in its proper place in the educational scheme of things, told his hearers the football setup in colleges where it outranks education and then handed out some down to earth advice to football hopefuls that sounded to this writer like 24 carat common sense.

Ask Some Questions

"Western Pennsylvania is the most fertile field in the United States for football talent," said Mr. Fesler. "If your boy is approached by an agent of some school far away, and is offered his room, his board, his tuition, his books and his spending money if he will enroll there, let the boy ask the agent four questions.

First. How much chance have I of a good education under your system of football?

Second. What happens to the scholarship if I get hurt and cannot play any longer?

Third. What happens to the scholarship if I don't make the grade?

Fourth. How much normal college life will I have if I take the scholarship?

"Football is an extracurricular activity at best," said Coach Fesler. "It is a means to an end, not the end itself. College is supposed to prepare a product for sale in the world after drilling at football six or seven hours per day for seven months simply can't get an education and the result is that he will pay the rest of his life for something he got for nothing in four years."

Pitt Will Be Good

"We didn't have such a good team at Pitt last season, but we had a bunch of boys who never quit trying. We will have a good team in a year or so, but the players will be getting an education first. Football is just a part of college life at Pitt for we want to turn out young men who are equipped for the problems of life."

Coach Fesler paid high tribute to the seven New Castle boys he had on his squad last season, co-captain William McPeak, Bobby Lee, Lindy Lauro, Anthony Razzano, Mike Rousos, Sam Haddad and Denver Newman. McPeak, Razzano, Newman and Lauro were guests at the dinner and McPeak spoke briefly and introduced the others. Those not present were absent because of other engagements.

Athletes highlighted the dinner. Present also were basketball coach Grover C. Washabaugh, and football coach Bill Hettler of Westminster college, football coach Phil Bridenbaugh of New Castle High school, and Ben Grosscup, Yale star who was a colleague of Larry Kelly. Aon of them spoke, Howard B. Cummings, manager of the New Castle plant of UEA&F also spoke.

Bill Bryan, Toastmaster

The toastmaster of the evening was Bill Bryan who did a real job. He was introduced by Program

Chairman Robert E. Fleming who in turn was presented by the president of the club, Sidney Turner. Mr. Fesler was introduced by a UEA&F man who was a chum of Fesler's in high school in Youngstown and through Ohio State. W. C. Seckler, Special music was provided by a quartet consisting of Arthur Harris, David W. Rees, Russell P. Rhodes and Leonard Kisthart. E. E. Branstetter was at the piano. Mr. Rees also directed pep singing.

The meeting was without any question the number one meeting ever held by the foremen. The food was good, the atmosphere was genial and the principal speaker, Wes Fesler did a job the club will find it difficult to have equalled in some time.

Following the dinner Mr. Fesler showed pictures of the Pitt-Ohio State game and described the plays as they were run off.

Medical Student Gives Some Clues On Grocer's Slayer

Pitt Student On Scene Of Pittsburgh Crime Shortly After Shooting

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 25.—(INS)—An 18-year-old University of Pittsburgh medical student today held the key to the identity of the slayer of Albert H. Kemper, 65-year-old grocer, who was shot to death.

George Gerneth disclosed he had just alighted from a street car when he was almost knocked down by a man fleeing, he said, from the murder scene. He told police he "got a good look at the gunman."

At the same time, the youth said, he saw Kemper staggering from the bullet wound and assisted him back into the store, Gerneth said he then summoned police.

The youth said that when police arrived they "framed his testimony and their indifference led him to drop the matter and go home."

Kemper was shot to death yesterday by a lone, well dressed gunman as he sat in his store reading a newspaper. Detective Chief Peter Connors said the motive for the murder was attempted robbery.

Police said they were still searching for a woman whose name appeared on an envelope found at the murder scene.

MYSTERY LETTER LATEST FACTOR IN KILLER HUNT

contained were not revealed, but one detective declared:

"This book is going to be dynamite!"

The address book reportedly contained a number of "Hollywood names". Each name was being checked as a possible lead in the murder, described as one of the most gruesome in Los Angeles crime annals.

The envelope also contained a newspaper clipping of the marriage of Maj. Matt Gordon, Army Air Forces pilot killed in India, and a girl whose name had been scratched out. The murdered girl had frequently told friends that she and Major Gordon had been married.

Taken From Pulse

Detective Sergeant F. A. Brown, after inspecting the envelope, said: "These things were taken from Elizabeth Short's purse after she was murdered. There is no doubt about it."

"They may have been mailed by the killer himself or by someone who does not want to be connected with the case."

"There is no doubt, however, that all the things mailed in this envelope were in the dead girl's purse when she was last seen."

Police said whoever mailed the envelope apparently was well versed in scientific criminal detection because the sending had soaked the contents in gasoline. They pointed out that fingerprints are caused by minute quantities of oil on the fingers and gasoline, by dissolving the oil, destroyed fingerprints.

Social Security Card

Among other effects found in the mysterious envelope were a social security card made out to "Elizabeth Short, No. 022-18-4750, 115 Salem street, Medford, Mass.," a birth certificate which established Miss Short's age as 22, and a baggage claim check from the Los Angeles Greyhound bus depot, dated Jan. 9.

Police said the large envelope contained "so many leads we don't know which to choose first."

The envelope first was noticed by a postal clerk at a "facing" table where mail is sorted for citywide distribution.

In type cut from several Los Angeles dailies, it was addressed:

"Here is Dahlia's belongings."

"Letter to follow."

At the same time, detectives backtracking for other clues in the past life of the jet-tressed murder victim discovered that Miss Short once lived with a Camp Cooke army sergeant as man and wife.

Father McCarter is delighted with the financial health of the church. Said "the credit can be placed in one place and that is the men and women of the congregation. Without any pressure, without any urging they have provided the money for the church expenses, liquidated the mortgage, provided for improvements and purchased new land."

Many of the members take issue with their pastor upon where the credit goes. They point out that while of course the congregation has done a splendid job, without the leadership and vision of Father McCarter it is likely the financial situation would not be as healthy as it presently is.

Some observation of the liquidation of the church debt will be held later, Father McCarter stated, but for the present there are no definite plans. These will be announced later.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear husband, Benjamin Lee Rea, who passed away one year ago today.

What would I give to clasp your hand.

Your happy face to see
To hear your voice and see your smile.

That meant so much to me,
Sadly missed by his wife,

Charges Portal Pay Program Is Legal Hi-Jacking

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Sen. O'Daniel (D) Tex., today termed portal-to-portal pay suits "Just plain legalized hi-jacking."

O'Daniel, called as a witness in Senate Judiciary subcommittee hearings on the portal suits, declared that court actions filed by the Congress of industrial organizations were a "Crime against commerce."

He advocated legislation he introduced which would take from employees 100 per cent of the money recovered in such suits and would reimburse employers forced to pay judgments.

Other witnesses called by the committee today were Maj. Clarence F. Castle and Forrest J. Sanborn, both of the office of the chief of engineers, War department.

"Using Suits As Club"

O'Daniel commended the subcommittee for its prompt action in calling hearings on the portal suits. He added:

"Of course, these portal-to-portal suits are just plain legalized hi-jacking."

"The CIO is simply using them as a club to hold over the head of industry to try to force industry to do what it wants done in making the next contracts."

"The Supreme court, when it rendered its decision in the Mt. Clemens Pottery company case opened up the floodgates for these damage suit lawyers and hi-jacking labor racketeers to file these suits."

O'Daniel's suggested legislation included an amendment to the internal revenue act, which, he said, provides that if the union gets a judgment you take it away from them by taxation and put the money in the treasury.

unknown. But his year-long experience in the Far East, where he served as President Truman's special envoy in China, led to the belief that he would be preoccupied with Far Eastern affairs.

Moreover, since Japan has a functioning government, many believed that the Japanese treaty might come to the front earlier should the German treaty be stymied in Moscow.

Marshall is known to feel that the major clash between American and Russian interests impends in the Far East. Therefore, it was believed that he must seek to promote a settlement there first.

EXTEND 'STEEL' WAGE CONTRACTS UNTIL APRIL 30

dent John A. Stephens of "big steel" when management and labor met yesterday for formal negotiations. He said the union's wage policy board and executive committee unanimously ratified the extension.

Murray added:

"The steel workers believe the decision to extend the contract will help the national economy. At the same time it will show that management and labor are seeking to settle their problem through peaceful relations."

Murray said that "real collective bargaining requires a complete discussion of all points."

U. S. Steel President Benjamin Fairless said that Stephens proposed the extension "because of a desire of both union and management to make a contribution to the national welfare," adding:

Operation To April 30

"The action taken by the union assures continuous operations until April 30. During that time there may be a clarification of matters now constituting issues which vitally affect wages and other costs."

Fairless said U. S. Steel had been sued for more than a half billion dollars in portal pay, adding that if the union had not agreed to the extension the corporation faced an immediate demand to raise wages without knowing how long an employee works each day and how much the worker is entitled to receive.

Both Murray and Fairless said that until the portal pay matter is clarified bargaining conferences will be continued. They are scheduled to meet again Monday.

Fairless said no understanding had been reached and any agreement will be retroactive to Feb. 15.

Meanwhile, it was reported, both management and labor met in behind-the-scenes parleys prior to yesterday's meetings.

The blood content of the human body is five quarts.

Heart-warming and thrilling is the true story of Father Edward Haggerty and of guerrilla organization and struggle in the Philippines called by General MacArthur "the greatest resistance movement of the war". It is the heroic tale of patriots who fought on and after the fall of Bataan knowing they could "expect no immediate aid".

Here is a man in the person of Father Thomas Rocks, reared in New Castle and known intimately by many, who served with this organization and was sacrificed by the enemy.

You, too, will want to read this account of loyal devotion.

The Ship Canal

The subject of controversy for the past thirty years, the Lake Erie-Ohio ship canal project has now reached the point where it seems to have better than an outside chance of being built. If and when it materializes, the canal would connect the Ohio river at Rochester with Lake Erie at Ashtabula, O.

Over the years sentiment in New Castle and Lawrence county over the canal has shifted several times. The late David Jamison originally favored the idea but after a thorough investigation upon his part he became an opponent of it. Later, when the so-called "dead end" canal from Rochester to Youngstown was proposed, sentiment here generally was against it.

If such a canal were built it would traverse a considerable distance of Lawrence county. Colonel Lorence of the United States Army engineers has made a survey of the new proposal for a canal and in several public statements has said it was entirely practical and should be built.

In none of the meetings called on the proposed canal has New Castle and Lawrence County been represented, yet if the same conditions prevail in the new canal proposal as did in the "dead end" canal, Lawrence county would be liable for considerable money.

We believe it is time for New Castle and Lawrence county to get interested in the canal proposals. Not from the basis of approval or opposition but form a fact-finding basis. What advantages does it hold for this county and what disadvantages?

The county commissioners have indicated their intention of attending a meeting in Pittsburgh on February 7 for the purpose of getting information upon the subject. A good idea but it should be joined by some representative citizens.

The least we can do is get the facts. After that the decision to approve or oppose can be made intelligently.

Fulbright Proposals

The conviction of Senator Fulbright of Arkansas that the American system of government could be improved has taken concrete form in two proposals he has put before Congress. Both are causing comment, although it is doubtful that the public is ready to grant that there is real need for either.

One suggestion put forward by Senator Fulbright could be accomplished by act of Congress. Existing law can be amended to permit an election for president and vice president in mid-term if the president should resign or die when there is no vice president. The other, which would give either the president or Congress authority to call an election for president and Congress at any time, would require a constitutional amendment.

These proposals are obviously the result of Senator Fulbright's belief that the government, under the present system, is less likely to reflect the will of the people at times than parliamentary government on the British model. Senator Fulbright feels that when the voters indicate that they have had enough of one political party, the new regime should be given full control of the affairs of the nation.

That is why he advised the President to resign, after first appointing a Republican to be secretary of state, following the election last November. President Truman rejected both of these proposals when he did not resign and appointed a Democrat as secretary of state, but Senator Fulbright is as certain as ever that there is danger for the country when the responsibility of government is divided between the parties.

Sentiment for a reform of this kind cannot be said to be very strong at the moment, but it could change during the next two years, if the President and Congress get into a tug of war, but otherwise the senator's proposals are destined to gather a great deal of dust before they are adopted.

Government's Stake

From Undersecretary of War Kenneth C. Royall the Senate has learned that portal pay claims in connection with war contracts may cost the government as much as half a billion dollars. This is enough to indicate that the government has a major, direct interest in clearing up the issue. But the treasury actually has far more than this at stake.

Suits against employers now aggregate considerably more than four billion dollars. If the unions manage to collect anything approaching this sum the government's revenues will be hit badly. Firms which are forced into bankruptcy or whose profits are wiped out by these claims will pay no taxes. The government must add to its liability under cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts the possibility of sharply reduced tax returns unless the portal threat is headed off.

This is one more good reason why Congress is sure to do its best to outlaw claims which have no justification although they have found a legal basis in a Supreme Court ruling.

There is some reason to suppose that even the CIO unions which filed the claims would be glad if they could find some way to withdraw them without losing face. Many union leaders are now finding the suits for billions in back pay something of an embarrassment.

A great many of them are based on extremely flimsy grounds and the leaders find that they have raised expectations in their members which it may be impossible to fulfill. The suits, meanwhile, have heightened congressional antagonism. Even if the unions collect in full, which now seems doubtful, they may merely succeed in driving employers into bankruptcy and depriving many of their own members of jobs.

Europe, according to a news item, is drinking more coffee than ever. Which causes our friend, John Butler, a leading connoisseur on the little brown bean that comes from Brazil, to rise up and demand: "Why?"

"What European chefs and cooks can do to coffee," says John, "is pure, unblushing sabotage. Crime in the kitchen—no less."

"Any resemblance between European coffee and America's beautiful breakfast beverage is purely the figment of a mad man's imagination."

"I've drunk the devil's brew in Germany the Heines call 'kaffe' and, mister, it was the dirtiest trick I ever played on my palate and stomach."

"British-brewed coffee is just a hollow mockery of the creamy chocolate-hued nectar that any American hash-house percolator jockey knows how to concoct."

"As for French coffee—well, maybe they don't strain the stuff first through a worn out kitchen mop but after one sip you become mighty suspicious."

"I've an idea that if Uncle Sam wants to make this globe a better place for everybody to live in he should send a few million American housewives abroad to teach the world the sacred secret of java that will neither walk off the table by itself or taste like diluted swamp water."

WASHINGTON CALLING

by MARQUIS CHILDS

Canada Displays Democratic Way

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—In Canada there is in progress the trial of one of the last of those accused of conspiracy in the amazing plot to give secret information to agents of the Soviet Union. This man on trial, Henry Harris, is one of the small fry charged with being a go-between for the principals in the plot.

Here is the essence of the Democratic way of life. Here is the supreme contrast between the totalitarian state and a society grounded in the fundamental human freedoms.

In Soviet Russia, on the basis of the evidence found against these plotters by an official commission, they would all have been shot out of hand. In democratic Canada, each has been given a trial, and six of the defendants have been acquitted. One, David Shugar, was acquitted although the Royal commission reported on the basis of extensive evidence and examination: "We are of the opinion that Shugar not only agreed to communicate such information (of a secret and confidential nature) but that the evidence before us shows that he did so communicate."

Extraordinary Document
The commission's report, 733 printed pages, is an extraordinary document. Dispassionately, without rhetoric or emotion, it presents an overwhelming mass of evidence to show how Canadian citizens were so perverted that they betrayed every oath of loyalty and duty. It shows how Soviet agents using the cloak of diplomacy in the Russian Embassy in Ottawa, worked incessantly to subvert Canadians to their purposes.

Only by chance was this network of agents uncovered. Only because a cipher clerk in the Embassy, Igor Gouzenko, could no longer endure the duplicity of his position were authentic Soviet documents brought to light. Gouzenko's courage almost cost him his life when agents broke into his apartment in the middle of the night.

When Gouzenko first went to the Canadian authorities with his story, investigation was made that he be turned over to our FBI for security reasons, and be permitted to make the story public on our side of the border. Gouzenko emphatically rejected this suggestion, saying he felt he would be in far more danger from assassination by Soviet agents in this country than in Canada.

Many of the trails uncovered by the Royal commission led into the United States. Sam Carr, a long-time Canadian Communist who was revealed as one of the chief undercover agents, hid in Philadelphia from 1940 to 1942, when he returned to Ottawa. When the plot became known Carr escaped. Since then, he has been reported in Paris, Stockholm and Moscow. One of the minor phases of the plot centered in efforts to get a false Canadian passport for a very important Soviet agent in Los Angeles. And repeatedly in the documents from the Soviet Embassy, there were references to individuals and places in the United States—links in the world-wide chain.

Beyond doubt the network of Soviet espionage in this country is far more extensive than in Canada. If it can be uncovered at all, short of the kind of disclosure made by Gouzenko, it can only be done by a thorough, persistent, trained agency such as, say, the FBI.

The House un-American activities committee announced the most active year in its turbulent history. Apparently a beginning is to be made with hearings in Hollywood on the Communist influence in the movies. While this will make sensational headlines, it can actually do more harm than good. Fellow-travelers—dumb, innocent, or gullible—are not likely to reveal on the stand anything more than a sense of martyrdom. The end result is confusion.

By parodying the methods of the Russians—by witch-hunting, for example—we descend to their level. That is one of the perils under which we live: resisting the encroachments of Totalitarianism. All our values will become so perverted that the difference between the authoritarian and ourselves will cease to exist. Some of the Canadian plotters entered the conspiracy out of motives they believed idealistic. But it was not long before they were reduced to being paid spies pilfering documents out of government files and handing them over to their Soviet bosses.

Canada is a democracy that has made real progress toward the good life for all men. In the fact of this sinister intrigue, Canada has preserved the true values of a free society.

Long years of service done;
Touched glasses, brim to brim;
Room thronged, and everyone
Gathered to honor him.

Eyes with delight aglow;
Many to speak in praise.
Everything meant to show
Glory in well-spent days.

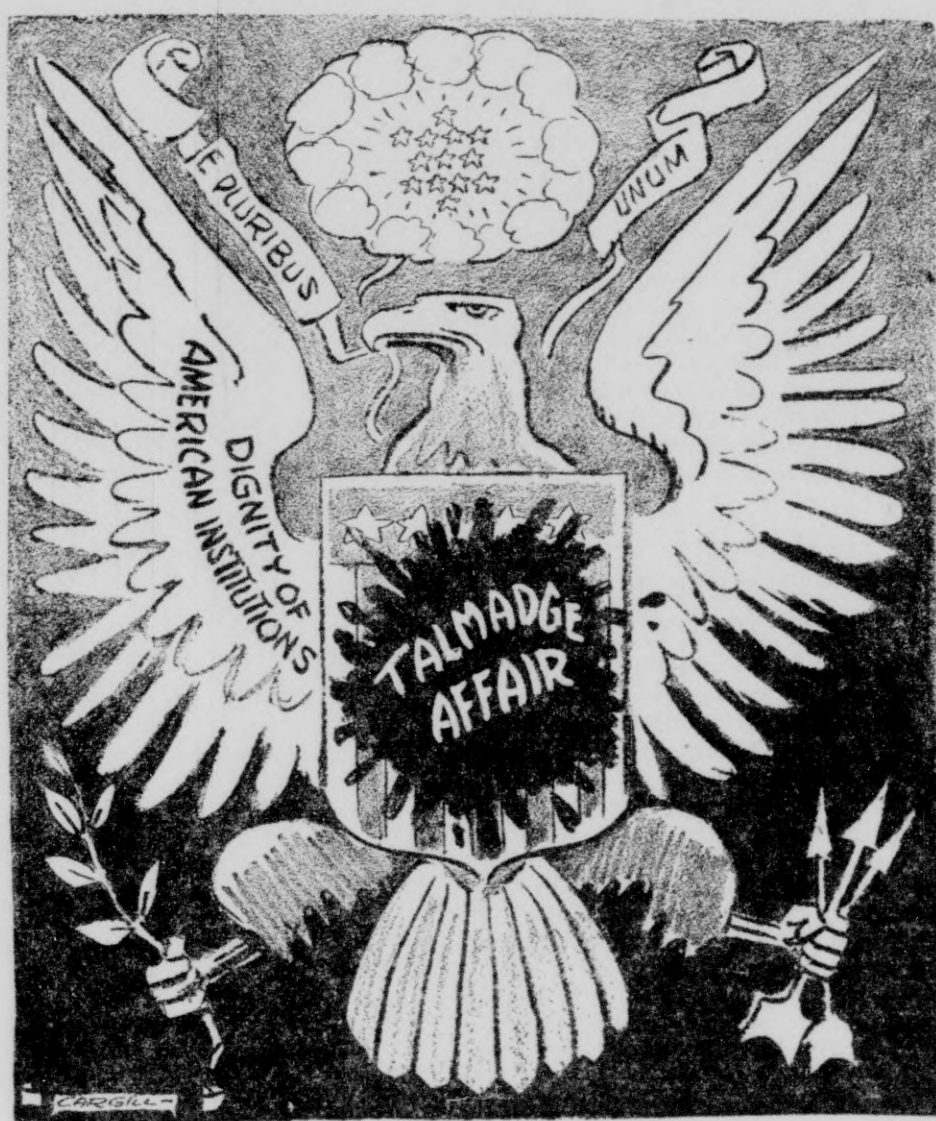

Pride in the useful life;
Joy in the gracious mind.
After the test of strife,
Never regret to find.

Fortune and fame are not
All that they seem.
Years nobly lived are what Counts best.

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH BRANDEIS

New York's gas and electric meter readers have been supplied with a "Who's Who Among Dogs," compiled by the city's public utilities, so that they may know heretofore what species is apt to bite and which isn't.

The booklet contains full information concerning the disposition of such breeds as cocker spaniels, airfares, fox terriers, poodles and all the other breeds that meter readers are likely to encounter, and also full instructions for handling special cases.

A very good idea, and similar booklets should be distributed not only among meter readers but among mailmen, garbage collectors, delivery boys and ice men in the cities as well as in the country.

There should also, however, be a section dealing with plain dogs of no particular breed, although, in my experience, ordinary mongrels, as a rule, have the best disposition of all the canines.

That is due, probably, to the fact that mongrels have an inferiority complex, although I doubt that class distinction is as strongly developed in animals as in human beings.

I remember my own little Duce, a spunky and sassy Sealyham, had a violent aversion to anybody who wore a white coat.

When he was a pup the delivery boy from the grocery store, who was dead afraid of dogs and a little coward, had kicked him, and from that time on Duce jumped up on anybody who wore a white coat and promptly tore a piece out of it.

During his lifetime I must have bought at least fifteen or twenty new coats for butchers and bakers and drug store messengers, and although he was a darn smart little fellow, we were never able to break him of the habit.

Whenever my wife saw anybody with a white coat come up the driveway she'd promptly look Duce up in another room, but Duce apparently could smell the white coat, as he'd yelp his head off until the object of his hatred had disappeared.

There is a big woolly poodle in our neighborhood now, whose favorite occupation it is to make the rounds of all the houses in his district and upset the garbage cans.

Then he runs off with whatever he thinks is to his taste and if he finds that he made a mistake he just drops it in the middle of your lawn and leaves it there.

I was going to tell you about this poodle swiping a big pot containing my favorite dish—a Boston fish stew—which my wife had set out on the back steps to cool because there was no room in the icebox, but I won't.

My wife told me if I printed that story she'd never speak to me again.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped self-addressed envelopes.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

It might be a good idea for all those veterans who have dropped the National Service Life Insurance to think over the case very seriously . . . for it will soon be too late to reinstate that insurance . . . The 31st of January is the last day . . . and some of the lads who have dropped their insurance are not in position to take out insurance . . . that is many are not physically fit to pass an insurance examination . . . and after the 31st the only way that Government Insurance can be reinstated will be by examination. So we urge all who are interested to give the topic serious consideration . . . and then if you need further information call at the Veterans Administration office in the Lawrence Savings and Trust Building . . . second floor . . . they have all the answers . . . or talk it over with Frank Sargent who is located in the City building.

Material is being gathered . . . groups are again stacking up information about a political campaign . . . It seems that a lot of talk is going around concerning the candidates that might throw in a hat for the office of Mayor . . . It's a good topic for discussion . . . no doubt some have the next Mayor all picked out . . . even can predict how much of a majority he will carry.

Not only is it interesting to hear talk about proposed candidates but it's doubly interesting to hear the proposed candidates talk about the job . . . some of those who have been mentioned are not interested . . . others are really thinking seriously about what they will do once in office. Some are new to politics . . . a couple of others have tasted public office and today have no intention of going back to civilian life that is have no intention of going back without putting up a good fight.

It sure is odd how some men can stand up before a crowd and tell how difficult it is to be a public official . . . and then in the same sentence indicate they never want anything else to do in life . . . bears for punishment you say . . . no, it's just that part of their statements are not from the heart . . . the part about them wanting to stay in office is what they really mean.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

PARENTS WRITE OF SUCCESS

Among all the letters from worried mothers I am receiving, more and more letters are coming which relate to parental successes. Here is an example:

"Dear Mr. Meyers:
"I would like to tell you a little about our son who is a joy and comfort to us."

"He is fifteen years old and in the tenth grade at school. When he was just a baby I started reading to him, and he developed a great love for books, which has helped him make good grades in school."

Spent Many Hours
"His dad spent many hours in his job as Y. M. C. A. group leader with our boy and the neighborhood children, teaching them to play and get along together. This helped him very much since he was an only child."

"He is six feet tall, weighs 175 pounds and is quite well developed physically. Active participation in sports and the fact that he doesn't smoke or drink intoxicants of any kind has, we believe aided in his good physical condition."

"He has always come to me with troubles, joys, failures and successes and I was never too busy to listen and try to help him."

Good Time Together
"He, dad and I often have real talkfests and we have some wonderful times together chatting and listening to the fine music on the air or on records."

"It means a lot to us that he is truthful and honest. We have always tried to treat him in such way that he will not want to lie to us about where he goes or what he does."

"Since he was thirteen years old he has earned enough money for his clothes, amusements and a few other expenses. Also he buys some things for me and has some bonds and cash saved."

"We are trying to encourage him to accept and bear his responsibilities as best he understands them and is able to do so."

Another mother writes:

"Dear Mr. Meyers:
"I would like to tell you about a family who lived out the war with the grandmother's family."

"When their sailor father returned, he took them to their own home. All the time he was in the Pacific area the young twins' mother feared they would not feel acquainted with him. As the mother was ill on his return, he took complete care of the babies. Sometimes at bath time one would hear his voice, 'Let's take a muster; eyes, ears, knees.' Or dressing them, 'Let's take a muster; shirt, socks, shoes, etc.'"

"The twins helped him and loved him. In the old days they sometimes slid out of their chairs while eating. But no more. At the call, 'Chow,' they run to their chairs while their father sits at the head of the dinette table, a baby on either hand."

"Wouldn't you and I like to see this happy group in action?"

The World and the Mud Puddles

COMPARE IT WITH HOOVER'S WORK

Except for a continuance of operations in China, the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration will wind up its affairs with the end of the year. Since its inception the organization has contributed some four billion dollars to various nations in Europe and Asia which were victims of war's devastation. Of this huge sum the United States provided the major portion, between seventy and eighty per cent.

A striking fact noted in the financial analysis of the UNRRA operations is that about a billion and a half dollars of its expenditures were in Soviet satellite states, some of which are now hostile to this country. Poland and Yugoslavia, for example, received approximately a half-billion each. Czechoslovakia received Two Hundred Seventy Million Dollars, the Soviet Union One Hundred Eighty-nine Million Dollars, Byelorussia Sixty-one Million Dollars, Albania Twenty-eight Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars. Italy, with far greater population, received less than Yugoslavia. The largest outlay for any one nation was for China, amounting to more than a half-billion dollars.

Almost from the start charges of inefficiency, waste, and even graft, were made against the administration of the UNRRA. One reason for these alleged faults, perhaps, was that while the United States was the major contributor, Malacchino, only minor authority. Administration seems to have been most pronounced in certain European countries, where agents of the organization created several scandals and political favoritism, waste and black marketing. Governor Lehman's resignation as administrator resulted in the appointment of Mayor LaGuardia of New York, who made a vast amount of noise but has contributed nothing of consequence to increased efficiency in operations.

The purpose of the UNRRA was laudable, but it is probable that its record of performance, coldly and impartially analyzed, will indicate that we have been more or less duped once more in our efforts to promote world brotherhood through large material donations. Ending large material donations should clip at least a billion dollars a year from our national budget.

Lord Inverchapel Recalls His Early Days In U. S.
Truman Pre-'48 Strategy May Put GOP On The Spot
State Chiefs May Leave Old Washington Quarters

(Special to Central Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Lord Inverchapel, the British ambassador, has no intention of returning to England before midsummer, at least. He is too busy reliving some of the times he enjoyed when, as a young embassy clerk, he previously served in Washington. Chattering a few days ago, he appeared anxious to visit Florida and several other places.

But uppermost in his mind is the thought of spring and watching the flowers he personally planted come to bloom. Then he wants to go to New England.

"I want to shoot whitetailed deer," he said. "I don't mind that, but I couldn't shoot a bear. It made me guide angry, for it was a beautiful bear. He was sitting there munching blueberries and I hadn't the heart."

He prefers, also, New England's hardwood trees as "far better than those eternal Christmas trees they have in the west."

The envoy's memory of good sport is to take a canoe to Harper's Ferry, toss it in the water and shoot the rapids down to Great Falls, just out of Washington.

"You can make it nicely in a week-end," he said. "Start Saturday afternoon and you are back in Washington Monday morning. But be sure to have at least an 18-foot canoe or you are liable to nose under in stiff rapids."

Political observers are watching President Truman closely for signs that his pre-1948 strategy might take the form of putting the Republicans on the spot by forcing them to make important decisions which they may be reluctant to make.

They noted that his termination of hostilities had all the earmarks of forcing the GOP to commit itself on several essential points—farm support prices, excise taxes and the Smith-Conally act. In his state of the union message, observers saw his references to demands for a balanced budget and debt-reduction in the face of Republican requests for lower income taxes.

Some observers think Mr. Truman will steer a middle course, waiting for the Republicans to make mistakes before he takes a stand for 1948.

Former Rep. Roger C. Slaughter (D) of Missouri who was "purged" by President Truman last year, may accompany the House surplus property committee overseas as special counsel.

Scores close to the committee declared that Slaughter, who acted as committee chairman last year, was a "fugitive."

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and the communist newspaper Pravda were locked today in a bitter controversy which in the final analysis comprised a grave challenge to the Briton's veracity.

They were so diametrically opposed on interpretation of a recent speech by Bevin dealing with the existing Anglo-Soviet treaty that both could not possibly be right.

Pravda charged that Bevin, by stressing that all Britain's foreign commitments must and will be within the framework of the United Nations, purposely has sabotaged a pact of friendship with the Soviets.

Bevin, through his foreign office, fairly replied that he has on numerous occasions reaffirmed the treaty and even has attempted to extend it to half a century of life at the outset—a proposal the Russians have ignored.

It is clear that the Soviet Union—or at least Pravda—is nettled by present negotiations aimed at cementing Britain's relationships with the United States and France. This Bevin believes is a logical extension of the Anglo-Soviet pact to Bring Britain into a forceful rectangular arrangement with the other three components of the Big Four powers.

The foreign office claims the Russian attitude is difficult to understand, and Britain hardly can be lightly accused of dishonoring any of its commitments of past history or of recent times.

In some respects, the present situation recalls the shivering of apprehension that rolled over Nazi Germany when in June, 1940, former Prime Minister Winston Churchill voiced his revolutionary proposal for a definite union between Britain and France.

It was a desperate effort to rally the French against a disaster that already was inevitable.

He proposed an "indissoluble" union, with a joint constitution, joint armed forces and automatic dual citizenship plus a fusion of economic and financial interests. He said:

"The union will concentrate its whole energy against the power of the enemy no matter where the battle may be. And thus we shall conquer."

Adolf Hitler promptly mobilized all the vast resources of propaganda, blackmail and military power that was at his call and France's leadership fell apart into disorganization before the far-reaching proposal could enter even its preliminary phases.

The situation at present differs because there is no crippling war in progress; democracy has achieved its triumph. But between the surface it reveals a healthy Soviet regard for the manner in which the British empire scatters its friendship, just as there was a healthy regard for British military prowess when crucial moments of the war held the world in thrall.

Dwindling Treasury Adds Woe To Georgia Governor Controversy

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 25.—(INS)—Georgia gubernatorial squabble centered today about a dwindling treasury.

State Auditor B. E. Thrasher asserted that the state government can function only for 30 days unless Treasurer George B. Hamilton rescinds his refusal to accept revenue collections or procedure of transmitting tax funds to the treasury.

Thrasher disclosed that there is only $7,901,825 in operating funds in the treasury—or one month's expenses.

Hamilton notified Charles D. Redwine, appointed commissioner of revenue by assembly-elected Governor Herman Talmadge, and Stonehill Dyer, appointed to the position by Lieut. Gov. M. E. Thompson, that he considered neither qualified for the post under Georgia law.

Would Freeze Funds
Hamilton added that he would freeze any funds transmitted from the revenue department of the treasury.

If Redwine or Dyer wish to place any of their collections in state government channels where the money can be spent, Hamilton said, they must deposit the money to the state treasurer's bank account.

Redwine declined to comment on Hamilton's announcement that he would not approve warrants for next month's operating expenses other than say he would cross that bridge when he came to it.

Redwine, however, issued a formal statement on Hamilton's refusal to accept revenue collections through ordinary channels.

Hamilton declines to recognize Redwine as the legally qualified revenue commissioner because Attorney General Eugene Cook has refused to approve his bond. He also refuses to recognize Dyer because he has not been confirmed by the state senate.

Nearer Courts

A move toward bringing Georgia's gubernatorial dispute nearer the courts was made when an attorney for J. B. Edwards, a solicitor general appointed by former Gov. Ellis Arnall, announced he will file a suit for declaratory judgment Monday to test the legality of appointments by the rival claimants to the governorship.

The suit will be the fourth court action developing from the mixup. It will determine whether Edwards or A. J. Whitehurst, appointed by Talmadge, will be recognized as solicitor general of the southern judicial circuit.

Edwards' appointment is not recognized by Talmadge. He has the backing, however, of Thompson. Talmadge, meanwhile, twice last night broadcast his claim to the governorship and denounced his opposition as opponents of "white supremacy."

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, Pearson street, have as their guest Miss Sherlee Johnson of Butler.

Miss Dorothy Duda of 110 Ralph avenue has been admitted to Jameson Memorial hospital for observation.

Mrs. Mifflin Miller, 910 Cunningham avenue has been confined to her home with illness for the past 10 days.

Miss Florence Mattie Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stewart, Jackson avenue extension, is recovering nicely from an operation on January 20.

Rees Lewis of 706 East Reynolds street has received word from Ed Carr of Carlisle street, who is sojourning for the winter months at St. Petersburg, Fla. The latter reports the weather fine and the best winter for many years.

Parent-Teachers

Hickory P.T.A.

Approximately 100 attended the dinner given Thursday evening in the East Brook high school for members of the Hickory township P.T.A. and their families.

Mrs. George Pontius was chairman of the dinner committee and was assisted by Mrs. Carl Bludorn and Mrs. Roscoe Clement.

During business, with Roscoe Clement presiding, Howard Fox was appointed chairman of the Boy Scout committee. Others on the committee are Pat Anderson, John Robinson and Clinton Kennedy. An auction of articles contributed by members of the P.T.A. followed the business meeting with John Rung as auctioneer.

The sixth grade, taught by Mrs. Grace McCreary, won the attendance prize.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 21

Troop 21 of the Neshannock Township Girl Scouts met Thursday evening, for a spaghetti supper with 29 present on the occasion.

During the evening, James Mesner, Neshannock Township fire chief, instructed the girls in first aid work and was a special guest of the evening.

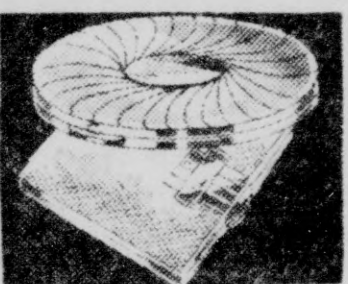

Mrs. Nelson McCluskey, committee woman was also special guest of the troop.

W. C. T. U. AND L. T. L.

Wayne Township

Regular monthly meeting of Wayne W. C. T. U. was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Clair Boyer with president, Mrs. Harry Houk, conducting devotionals and Mrs. Edward Beltz offering prayer.

Mrs. Clair Boyer reported for the religious education department and dues for four honorary members were received who are Charles McCandless, Thomas Berger, Roy McEhan and Clem Boyer.

Mrs. Arthur Wehman, director of flower mission and relief reported that fruit baskets sent to seven shut-in persons of the community were received cheerfully at the Christmas season. Mrs. Herman Patton, of Niles, O., a former member of the union sent greetings as did Mrs. John M. Houk, a member who is spending some time in California.

Mrs. Fred Houk, director of health and medical temperance, led an interesting discussion of the monthly topic with Mrs. John Meen, Mrs. Roy Meen and Mrs. Wendell Shoemaker, taking part.

Mrs. Shoemaker, counselor for the Wayne Y. T. C. stated that the council is planning to observe Y. T. C. week in March.

The union is planning to attend the hospitality tea in the near future with Mrs. Edward Beltz, program chairman. Donations were voted to the Frances Willard and Stevens fund.

Mrs. John Meenhan will receive the group in February with Mrs. Harry Houk conducting the program in honor of Frances Willard.

Mission Convention Closes Sunday At South New Castle

This evening at 7:30 o'clock missionary slides of Colombia, South America and French Indo China will be shown in the Hoover Heights Gospel Tabernacle of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, Morris street, South New Castle Boro.

Miss Marjorie Jones will represent the South American field, while Rev. G. C. Perry will represent the French Indo China field.

Sunday morning, Miss Jones, dressed in native costume, will be speaking to the Sunday school at 9:30. She will display a number of curios. At 10:45 Rev. Ezra Patterson will deliver the annual missionary address.

At 7:30 p. m. Miss Jones will present the "Challenge of Colombia" in the closing missionary talk, while Rev. Ezra Patterson will deliver the final evangelistic sermon.

Name Speakers For Conference Next Thursday

Dr. R. F. Galbreath will address the adult section of the mid-year efficiency conference and rally at the evening session, the First U. P. church, Clenmore boulevard, this city, Thursday, January 30. His subject will be "A Prophet Calls Adults To Repentance". The young people's group will have for its speaker, Rev. Ivey J. Shuff, the State Sunday School Association director of young people's work, while children's workers will have for its group meeting a visual education demonstration suitable for children.

David W. Rees, chorister of the conference-rally church, will have charge of the singing at the beginning of the evening session, and Mrs. Oliver W. Hurst will have charge of the devotional meditation, assisted by young people. There will be special music, and Mrs. John P. Love will be the organist. After the group meetings all will re-assemble for a consecration service, closing with a "fellowship circle", which will be in charge of Rev. Shuff.

The afternoon session will deal with plans for the coming pre-Easter increase campaign which will start February 16, as well as for other activities. Reports from departmental superintendents, a "question and answer" open forum and a message from Rev. Shuff on county and district activities.

Letters have been sent to ministers, Sunday school superintendents, county and district officers of Lawrence county, containing reservation slips for the fellowship dinner. These slips are to be returned promptly so that the ladies of the church will know the number to be served. Sunday school superintendents are urged to send a group of young people and if possible take care of the cost of the dinner. This will be a splendid investment in Christian education. The conference rally is for all ages, adults, young people and children's workers.

Between the afternoon session and the fellowship dinner, a sound motion picture depicting a Bible story will be run to show the kind of pictures that may be used to advantage in church and Sunday school. There will also be Camp Kanesatake views.

Last Year's Drive Set High Mark For Pre-Easter Drive

Figures that are being received show that the results of last year's eight-week pre-Easter increase campaign were the best of any campaign of this nature that has been held to date. It is anticipated that this year's campaign will show even better results.

The goals of the campaign are an increase in evangelism, an increase in Sunday school attendance, an increase in church attendance and an increase in Bible study.

Last year six of the eight districts comprising the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association participated which made an enrollment in the campaign of 75 Sunday schools. Those wishing to enroll may furnish the average attendance figure for the calendar year 1946. Those who were in last year's campaign are requested to furnish the average attendance of the eight Sundays of the campaign which closed Easter Sunday, April 21, 1946.

Series Start Second Week With Prophetic Teacher At Alliance

Rev. Moreton F. Scruby Of Dayton, O., Attracting Many With Prophetic Addresses

With Sunday the half-way mark in the two week evangelistic series in the Gospel Tabernacle of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, 210 Pearson street, Rev. Moreton F. Scruby, of Dayton, O., evangelist and Bible teacher will bring two addresses tomorrow at the church.

Sunday morning at 10:45, Rev. Scruby has chosen as his theme, "A Royal Romance—King Solomon's Love-Life" while in the evening at 7:30 o'clock he will address his audience on the subject: "God Speaks Again Today".

Other services in the church Sunday will be Bible school, 9:30 o'clock and the Young Peoples Hour at 6:30 p. m.

The special series of prophetic addresses will continue every evening next week with the exception of Saturday at 7:30 o'clock. The climax will come on Sunday, February 2, when three services will be held in the church.

Central Christian Observes Youth Week

Youth Week will be observed from Sunday, January 26, to Sunday, February 2, at Central Christian church. Young people will be responsible for mid-week prayer service Wednesday, January 29, and for opening exercises of the Bible school.

Young people have planned appropriate programs for both Sunday evening assemblies. Youth will be given recognition in every meeting during the week at Central church. Jacqueline Conley, Sylvia Moore and Louis Phelps compose the committee of arrangements.

Special Program At City Mission

Rev. Fred Carpenter of Struthers, O., will be the special speaker Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the City Rescue Mission, 17 South Mercer street, in the absence of the superintendent, Rev. D. B. West.

A program of special music will be presented by the Mission staff including vocal and instrumental numbers.

Tuesday evening, Rev. George Fissel, pastor of the Grace Bible church, will speak in the Mission at 8 o'clock. A number of his church members will be along to assist in the program.

Youth Of Third U. P. To Conduct Service

Young people's societies of Third U. P. church will be responsible for the morning worship service at 11 o'clock Sunday, January 26, when Miss Lois Beard will be the leader. Prayer will be offered by Miss Isabel Burke.

Mrs. Andrew Harcar, Carroll Byler and John Lee, Jr., will speak on the subject of "Prayer." A quartette, composed of William Book, Donald Bailey, Harvey Bush and William Stoner, will offer appropriate musical selections at the assembly that is in observance of Young People's Day. The loose offering will be used in young people's work.

A good way to train children to remove the ring around the bathtub is to put a bath brush for scrubbing in easy reaching distance of the tub, with cleaning powder or soap.

Youth For Christ Audience To Hear Rev. M. F. Scruby

James Bowman, Vocal Soloist, On Evening Program: Newly Organized Choir To Be Heard

In an attractive program, arranged particularly for the youth of this city and surrounding area, the New Castle Youth for Christ committee will present this evening at 7:45 o'clock in the First Methodist church, North Jefferson street, Rev. Moreton F. Scruby of Dayton, O.

Rev. Scruby, who is known from coast to coast for his prophetic addresses, has arranged a special address to be presented to the youth of the city this evening, dealing with the youth problem of this day and the solution of that problem.

As soloist, James Bowman, teacher in the local schools, and worker in the churches of the city, will be heard. Mr. Bowman will be presented in two numbers during the evening.

To be featured again at the service will be the newly organized Youth for Christ choir which is under the direction of Miss Mary Aiken. The Youth for Christ Ensemble will sing during the hour.

In charge of the program will be Rev. Howard Sartell, director of the New Castle Youth for Christ. Rose Bender will preside at the piano.

Salvation Army Leaders On City Ministerial Hour

Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, local and district leaders in the Salvation Army will have charge of the New Castle Ministerial hour over radio station WKST.

Captain Thelma Dundon, leader of the local corps will be chairman of the program, and she will introduce Major and Mrs. Walker Porter, the former who is division financial secretary of Pittsburgh of the S. A. and Major Violet Fowle, division welfare secretary, also of Pittsburgh.

The program of the afternoon will consist of music and speaking.

High Mining Costs And Strikes Cause Shift To Diesels

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Pennsylvania railroad officials today declared that high cost of mining coal and the uncertainty of supplies during strikes led them to ordering 47 diesel electric engines.

That was their answer to a threat of leaders of the United Mine Workers to fight the move in the legislature. The law making body has nothing to do with their plans to buy and operate the new type engines, a P. R. R. spokesman said.

Leaders of the miners union contended that the railroad is attempting to drive the coal mining industry out of Pennsylvania. Michael Hontus of Uniontown, secretary-treasurer of the U. M. W. district four, said if the railroad places the diesels in operation coal production will be cut 2,750 tons a day.

BONUS FOR EMPLOYEES PAW PAW, W. Va., Jan. 25.—(INS)—A bonus of $20,000 was shared today by 185 employees of the Appalachian Coalfields company.

President L. P. Miller of Paw Paw, who set up the bonus system three years ago, said the money will be paid to all types of labor handling the annual crop.

The bonus does not include the one given last September when workers were benefited under a special bonus arrangement for packing.

Thomas F. Muder Dies At Sharon

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Muder of 313 East Sheridan avenue have been called to Sharon by the sudden death of their grandson, Thomas Floyd Muder of 684 Prindle avenue. Death occurred Friday night at 11:30 o'clock in Buhl hospital. The infant, aged 18 months, was a son of Ray Muder, Jr., and Opal Fletcher Muder.

Survivors in addition to the parents include two brothers, James and Richard Muder, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Fox of Sharon as well as Mr. and Mrs. Ray Muder of this city.

Rev. Richard Baldwin will officiate at the funeral services that will be conducted Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late residence, where friends are being received. Interment will take place in Oakwood cemetery, Sharon.

Holland Demands German Territory

LONDON, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Dispatches from the Hague revealed today that Holland has demanded six "pockets" of German territory so that the Netherlands frontiers may be straightened.

According to Reuters, the demands were contained in a new memorandum presented to the deputies of the big four foreign ministers, now meeting in London.

Meanwhile, South Africa favored establishment of the pre-Anschluss borders for Austria. It warned of "continual friction" and perhaps disappearance of Austria as a sovereign state unless it is set on its feet by the peace treaty.

The South African note urged that the Austrian treaty provide for the evacuation of occupation forces from Austria within 60 days after the peace pact is signed.

PRAYER GROUPS TO ASSEMBLE AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Ministers and laymen of the city will assemble in the First Baptist church Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock in interest of the city wide C. B. M. C. campaign, which will be conducted in the First Methodist church, North Jefferson street, February 23 to March 9 inclusive.

The speaker for Monday evening will be Rev. Francis Johannides, pastor of the Hoover Heights church. Immediately following the address of the evening the group will divide into a number of prayer groups to pray for the success of the two-week evangelistic endeavor.

Dr. Robert J. Wells of Wheaton, Ill., and the well known "Smitty" girls quintet of Minneapolis, Minn., have been engaged for the C. B. M. C. sponsored meetings.

Auto Production Shown In Report

DETROIT, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Ward's automotive reports Friday estimated this week's car and truck production in the United States and Canada at 94,345 units.

The industry's statistical agency forecast record postwar production next week if a quick settlement is reached in the strike at the L. A. Young Spring and Wire Detroit plant.

Ward's pointed out that the company supplies most of the industry's seat cushion spring elements and that the stoppage will be reflected in lower car output within a matter of days.

Youngstown Housing Project Rents Rise

YOUNGSTOWN, Jan. 25.—Tenants in Westlake Terrace housing project have been notified that rents for the houses are to be boosted some as high as 35 per cent. Some of the tenants are making $300 a month and are only paying $33 a month rent. The raises will affect the latter class mostly.

New rent schedules call for $50 a month for five-room apartments now renting for $37, down to $42 for three-room houses renting for $33 now.

Two families have already signified that they will move.

Features Sunday At Croton Church

Appropriate features will be offered Sunday, January 26, at two assemblies in Croton Methodist church. A missionary play, directed by Mrs. C. R. Campbell, will be given by women of Nora Hill Circle during church school at 9:30 o'clock in the morning.

In the evening worship service at 7:30 o'clock members of the Youth Fellowship will deliver orations in the public speaking contest, being sponsored by the board of missions of the Methodist church. Winner of the contest will enter a sub-district competition in March.

It is estimated that the U. S. depression in the 30's caused the postponement of about 800,000 marriages.

Lawrence Caravan Looks Forward To Ladies Night Soon

Plans Are Outlined For Dinner Meeting In The Cathedral On February 21.

Lawrence Caravan, A.A.O.N.M.S., No. 15, made plans for a February dinner meeting on Friday, February 21, at the monthly meeting of the order in The Cathedral Friday evening in the east dining room.

At this event the ladies will be special guests and a good evening of entertainment will be provided.

Out-of-town guests at last night's meeting included Nobles Ray Pope of Sharon, William Kennedy of Beaver Falls, and Tom Ashcomb of New Wilmington, district representatives of Lawrence Caravan. A large delegation of nobles from Ellwood City was also present, headed by Noble Paxton R. Fike, who later in the evening presented a program of entertainment which included sound pictures of sports events.

Solo numbers were presented by Chess Biddle, accompanied by Jack Evans, and Mr. Biddle also led in group singing which enlivened the occasion.

Later in the evening an oyster stew was enjoyed.

Public Support Asked For USO

Campaign For $15,000 Fund
Gets Under Way Here
Monday, Chairman
Solomon States

MEN IN HOSPITALS RECEIVE BENEFITS

Attorney Joseph Solomon, chairman of the 1947 USO campaign, today appealed for cooperation of the public with the fund workers in raising the $15,000 quota assigned Lawrence county to support the United Service Organizations during the coming year. The local campaign starts Monday.

The benefits of USO are many and varied, and the services of this organization are vital to the morale and welfare of our service men, he pointed out today.

The USO was essentially a war agency, and although the war is now over, it must carry on. It existed prior to Pearl Harbor when men were taken from their homes to distant camps in the name of national defense, and these men enjoyed the benefits of USO service before the first American shot was fired. They must still have access to its benefits now that the last gun has been silenced, for they are still serving their country. There are not many soldiers left who actually fought the war, but Lawrence county has 2,600 men yet serving their country in camps and in occupational forces.

Wounded Men Benefit

Then there are the men who were in the war, who are still fighting a battle to get well and become healed of war's infirmities. Many have injuries which will remain with them the rest of their lives. Many are still in veterans hospitals, wondering if anyone still remembers them. They are ones whom the USO has not forgotten.

The best known service of the USO is the camp show. In many places throughout the world, the only form of entertainment besides movies, is the camp show. Here is entertainment at its best, bringing these men a touch of home, and letting them know that America still remembers them.

In addition, USO has instituted an extensive program for the soon-to-be-discharged service men. Lectures, visits to industry, talks by famed educators and others are provided for them through the USO.

"Yes, the fighting and glory are over, but these men who are still serving have a right to expect the same treatment and service that was given during the war," Mr. Solomon says. "We cannot afford to discontinue USO at this vital time."

Contributions may be mailed to Chairman Joseph Solomon, Union Trust building, or to the treasurer, Rev. Thomas J. Jones, 100 E. Reynolds street.

Officers Question Convicted Man On Charge Of Felony

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(INS)—A man police identified as James G. Fuller, 47, convicted with Mayor James M. Curley of Boston in a mail fraud case, faced felony court arraignment today.

Detectives said an FBI agent will question Fuller, who allegedly fled Boston while under $2,500 bail pending imprisonment under an eight-months to two-years sentence for fraud.

Jack A. Brookes, exporter, told Detectives Frederick Hans and William Chaplin that on Oct. 26 Fuller gave him a bad check for $833.20. He said that as a favor to Fuller he paid two debts the latter had contracted and got check in return.

Fuller, who said he lived at 945 Pennsylvania Ave., Washington, D. C., was arrested in a Manhattan hotel.

St. Joseph, Mo., one of the greatest livestock markets in the U.S. dates from 1926, when Joseph Robison, an Indian trader and trapper, opened a trading post a short distance above the present site of the city, at Roy's branch. In 1890 he moved to Blacksnake Hills, now in the heart of the city.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Esther Williams is as pleased as punch. Her next picture for M-G-M will be made in the Hawaiian Islands.

"Isn't that a wonderful break," she said, "we'll be there for weeks."

Esther, who's anxious to get back to work as soon as possible says all the plans are in the preliminary stage, even the title of the picture. Its tentatively called "On An Island With You," but she thinks that'll be changed.

"We're going to Honolulu first," she said, "then we'll have to find a small atoll as the location spot."

Adolphe Menjou has been planning a two months tour of Europe this summer, but now he's thinking of postponing it.

"I hear conditions over there are still pretty bad," he said, "I wouldn't want to go under those circumstances."

He also said he is now doubtful whether he's going to England in the immediate future to make a picture.

"I don't want to go unless I can take my family, and I don't want to take them unless conditions are right."

Adolphe is working in "The Hucksters" with Clark Gable. He's giving Clark the same kind of ribbing Spencer Tracy once handed him.

When Director Jack Conway called out they were ready to make a scene, Adolphe retorted:

"I'll be there as soon as the king gets there."

"The king is here," said Conway. "I don't see him," said Adolphe.

"Okay, Jack," said Adolphe, "as long as the king is there now, I'll come."

Warner Anderson and Keenan Wynn are men with problems on their minds.

Your reporter met Warner walking along the street. He was wearing a grade A frown above his tweed suit.

"Do you know what I have to do?" he asked, "in three days I have to learn how to bow a violin well enough to make it look real. Of course, the music will be dubbed in."

It seems Warner has this chore to perform in "Tenth Avenue Angel."

As he departed he said:

"I don't believe it's possible, but I'm going to try."

A few stages down the street Keenan was practicing on a clarinet because he's supposed to be a member of the band which plays in "Song of the Thin Man."

"I'm just trying to get the fingering so I'll look right," he said, "it's very difficult."

He blew and out came a few toots.

Said Jim Burke, sitting nearby:

"That's very nostalgic to me. It sounds just like the Staten Island ferry."

Berkshire Breeders To Meet Wednesday

The Lawrence County Berkshire Breeders' Association will meet at 8 p. m. on Wednesday, January 29, at the Lawrence County Extension office in the Post Office building for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year.

Guy Fuller of Enon Valley, the retiring president of the association, will relate his experiences regarding the showing of swine held in connection with the Pennsylvania Farm Show. It is also anticipated that plans will be made for a breed gilt sale to be held in Lawrence county during the coming year. All interested in swine raising are invited to the meeting.

BABY ABANDONED

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 25.—(INS)—A well-dressed, month-old boy, wrapped in blankets, was abandoned at the door of a childless Pittsburgh couple's apartment today.

Harry A. Voelker, who found the baby, said he heard him cry for 45 minutes, but thought it was a neighbor's child. When the cry persisted Voelker investigated and found the baby lying on the floor of the hallway.

Voelker and his wife called east end police who took the child to juvenile detention home.

Close Contact Planned In Atom Control Program

Congressional Committee To Work Closely With Commission On Future
Moves

By FRANK B. ALLEN

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The new Congressional Atomic committee today planned "definite and rigid" contact with the atomic commission over which it will exercise legislative supervision.

Sen. Hickenlooper (R) Iowa, new committee chairman, said that his group decided at its first meeting that the law places "tremendous and extensive responsibility" on its members to keep abreast of atomic developments.

Hickenlooper said that first of all the committee will set up a staff adequate for the job of collecting and interpreting information and challenging it to the committee.

He said the next step will be "establishing contact" with the President's atomic commission—on whose nominations the Senate members of the committee will open hearings Monday.

Asserting that the Capitol Hill group intends to meet fully its responsibility for keeping informed about what the commission is doing, Hickenlooper said:

"There will be a very definite and rigid schedule of periodic meetings with the commission."

The first meeting is expected to take place shortly after the Senate confirms President Truman's appointment of Commission Chairman David Lilienthal and other members and General Manager Carroll Wilson.

Stressing the importance of keeping the committee informed on atomic issues, Hickenlooper said the committee might have use of much of the unusual information-getting authority conferred upon it by law.

Going beyond the usual committee authority delegation, the law authorizes the committee to use the services of government departments and agencies—presumably any or all of them. A provision says:

"The committee is authorized to utilize the services, information, facilities, and personnel of the departments and establishments of the government."

To Hear Report On Shenango 'Y' Membership Drive

Final Returns Of Campaign To Be Reported At Meeting In Branch Sunday

Sunday at 5 p. m. members of the Shenango street "Y" will make their final report of the current membership drive which is now underway.

The drive, headed by Dr. G. W. Garnett, has been in progress since January 11. At the last meeting of the group it was evident that contacts had been made over the entire city and this was partly due to the set-up of the campaign, which was planned by William Winter of the central branch and Edward Smith of the Shenango street branch.

The "Red" division, headed by Ted Stewart, has done a fine job, especially the team of Rev. J. L. MacFarland, but could not top the report of the "Blue" division under the leadership of Tom Farrow, and the team captained by James Harmon, who are leading in the recruiting of new members.

To date there are 209 members with the goal set at 250. The greatest number of new memberships has been acquired among the veterans who did not have the advantage of the Y. M. C. A. program before but now appreciate its value. Also many of them are workers in the divisions this year.

DRIVER IS HELD

Mathew Mush, 105 Friendship street, was arrested by Policemen Hillers and Reese at 12:30 a. m. in Croton avenue, near North street, after a car he drove reportedly struck three cars one of which is owned by Wendell McClmonds, R. D. 4 and which was damaged badly. Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna said a drunken driving charge would be lodged against Mush today.

Presidential Action

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Presidential dismissal of Maj. Gen. Philip Fleming as head of the office of temporary controls was demanded today by former State Rep. John J. Lamula.

Lamula is spokesman for the joint rent action committee, which represents 66 thousand tenants.

Attacking the OTC order to allow hardship rent increases, Lamula said this was the opening wedge of the all-out fight of the real estate lobby to banish rent controls completely. He continued:

"Since Fleming assumed control of OTC two months ago the real estate combine has been battling one thousand per cent with a new order of retreat issued by the general practically every day."

Pittsburgh Crash Claims Two Lives

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Jack Flaherty, 21, and Robert Maginn, 24, both of Pittsburgh, were instantly killed today when their car crashed into a pole on a Pittsburgh street.

Flaherty, the driver, was pinned in the wreckage and firemen had to pry open a door to recover the body. Maginn was thrown clear.

Seven other persons were injured in accidents early today and last night in the Pittsburgh area.

Ognar, England, will convert its grammar school into flats.

William the Conqueror, one of the greatest of English rulers, was rather stout and was sensitive about it. A sarcastic remark about his fatness by Philip I of France, so infuriated William that he raised an army and invaded France. It was during this war that he was killed.

Did you ever stop to think

how many times you turn a faucet on and off during the day? When you consider all the dishes, cooking, laundry, and cleaning that occupy your days, it would be hard to guess the number of times you make that simple gesture.

But there's another side to it—think how much harder your work would be if you had no running water in your home!

No wonder the housewife takes running water for granted when it costs so little—just about five cents a day for the average family. And the modern housewife, with an eye for efficiency, insists on having continuous hot water too.

Black Marketers Face Long Sentences

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Total penalties of 278 years in jail and fines of $590,000 today faced two convicted operators of "black market" slaughter houses. A jury in Federal court found Albert Merik, 40, and Siegfried Herman, 39, guilty late yesterday on 76 counts of defrauding the government; 20 counts of forgery and using counterfeit ration stamps and one count of conspiracy. Both men are subject to the maximum penalty. District Attorney John F. X. McGoohey described the business of Herman and Merik as the "largest black market" meat operations in New York. The government contended at the trial that the two illegally acquired $850,000 in subsidies from the government. The case was heard before Federal Judge Frank A. Picard, assigned to New York from Michigan. Judge Picard recently made the controversial decision on portal-to-portal pay.

Red Cross Drive Division Heads Organize Friday

McCracken Appoints Chairman Of Campaign Groups
For Drive For $25,000

Newly appointed division heads of the 1947 Red Cross drive met with the campaign chairman, Glenn McCracken, and vice chairman, A. A. Webb, and with the executive officers and members of the staff of the Lawrence county chapter at a dinner meeting in The Castleton hotel Friday evening to plan the pre-campaign organization.

Mr. McCracken, appointed by chapter president Dr. Wm. Flannery, presided at the meeting which begins the work of the drive to raise $25,000 in Lawrence county. The Red Cross campaign will begin on March 1.

Division Heads
The division heads for this year are: William Berstesser, publicity; William D. Cobau, attorneys; Lauri G. Laurell and William R. Hanna, business district; Milton A. Pattison, county; Andrew M. Dods, government; J. Preston Flaherty, industry; George D. Reid, insurance and real estate; Edward M. Fisher, railroads; Mrs. Ray G. Caruthers, residential; Dr. Frank L. Burton and Miss Grace L. McCabe, public schools; Alec Samuels, special groups; J. Fred Clarke, truckers; Mrs. Plummer D. Gibson, in charge of supplies; and Mrs. Joseph Gillespie, in charge of the chapter house.

Campaign headquarters will be in the Pennsylvania Power office, although the staff at the chapter house will be available to give assistance at any time, Mr. McCracken stated. Chairmen will meet in the chapter house each Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock to turn in their reports.

Speakers
In a brief speech, Dr. Flannery expressed his confidence in the ability of the chairman and his workers to complete the drive successfully, and Austin A. Webb, vice chairman, told the group of the many kinds of assistance which he had discovered that the Red Cross is giving to servicemen, veterans and their dependents.

Mrs. Joseph Gillespie, executive secretary of the local chapter, answered various criticisms of the Red Cross, explaining that although it was the Red Cross policy to make no charges for any help, the war department insisted that a small sum be charged overseas for such things as food and overnight lodging. All of these charges were kept much lower than the prices in commercial hotels and restaurants, she pointed out.

Red Cross handled the blood donations and turned the plasma over to the army and navy. There was never any charge for clothing, such as sweaters, scarves and mittens, and campaign of refugee relief are distributed absolutely free, Mrs. Gillespie added.

Mrs. Louise McConnell then described the work of the Red Cross' Home Service, which is set up to give aid to servicemen and their dependents and to veterans and their dependents. It offers a claim service, consultation and guidance service, and a financial assistance program.

Last year 4,202 cases were acted on, and $5,143 was distributed for financial assistance. The financial help, Mrs. McConnell explained, is to help in emergency situations; it does not serve the same purpose as public relief.

Chairmen will get their materials immediately and organize their groups of workers during February. Mr. McCracken expressed his hope that the drive would attain its quota quickly.

CASE GOES TO JURY
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25.—(INS)—The fate of Thomas Marino, 40, charged with the "honor-slaying" of his daughter's sweetheart, today was placed in the hands of a jury in quarter sessions court.

Assistant District Attorney Raymond J. Speiser demanded a verdict of first degree murder in a plea to the jury of eight housewives and four men.

Democrats Give Georgia Governor Issue Wide Berth

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(INS)—The Democratic national committee disclosed today that it sidestepped the issue of "who's governor of Georgia" in issuing invitations for the White House tea this afternoon honoring the party's national bigwigs.

A committee spokesman said that "neither Gov. Talmadge, Gov. Thompson nor former Gov. Arnall appeared on the invitation list". All Democratic governors who had unofficially indicated they would be able to attend were invited to the White House function.

The committee, however, did not sound out either of the claimants to the Georgia governorship, preferring to maintain a hands off attitude.

Georgia will be represented by George Hamilton, Democratic state finance chairman, and Jackson P. Dick of Atlanta, chairman of the Georgia Jackson Day dinner committee.

Premier's Visit Aided Relations Of U.S. And Italy

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(INS)—President Truman has told the Italian government that the American visit of Premier Alcide De Gasperi materially strengthened the ties and understanding between the United States and Italy.

The chief executive in a letter to Provisional President Enrico De Nicola, also gave official assurances that the United States will give the Italian people all possible help in alleviating their economic difficulties.

Mr. Truman's letter to De Nicola pointed out that this country is making sincere efforts to continue to alleviate Italy's economic plight and to help feed the Italian population.

The president said that Italy's economic situation is under "constant consideration" by this government and that grain shipments will be continued.

Ronne Will Sail Despite Mishaps

"City Of Beaumont, Texas"
To Depart On Trip For Antarctic During Day

BEAUMONT, Tex., Jan. 25.—(INS)—Finn Ronne, ex-Navy commander, was determined to sail for the Antarctic today aboard "The City of Beaumont, Texas" despite last minute hardships which harassed the 22 weary expedition members.

The major last minute misfortune to befall the party was the loss of a twin-engine observation plane. The craft was smashed late yesterday while being put aboard ship. Ronne, however, declared he would pull anchor before nightfall despite the loss of the plane. He said a replacement would be flown to the expedition as soon as possible.

Research Venture

Ronne described his expedition as a highly important research venture. He plans that his party will investigate 150,000 square miles of land and ice. The main objective is the mountains portion of Antarctica in Palmer Land and the South Pole area. Ronne was on Palmer Land several years ago.

The expedition will seek uranium deposits, gold, minerals or other metals.

The Port of Beaumont, Texas, is equipped with all the instruments of a great research laboratory. Two airplanes have been especially converted for the ice-locked land survey.

Ronne expects to reach his destination about March 1 and spend 18 months exploring the south polar continent. He has, so far, surmounted lack of financing in an undaunted spirit which has radiated to the crew.

Yesterday the party cancelled social obligations—perhaps their last visits with friends for many months—to pitch in and help load the ship.

Boy Is Facing Charge Of Beating Father To Death

Thirteen-Year-Old Maine Boy
Accused Of Manslaughter In Court At Auburn

AUBURN, Me., Jan. 25.—(INS)—Slight, 13-year-old Gene Frederick Anderson heard himself accused of manslaughter in juvenile court today a few hours after telling police of smashing his father's skull with a baseball bat.

Gene is a mascot of the Mechanic Falls high school football team. He stands three feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 47 pounds.

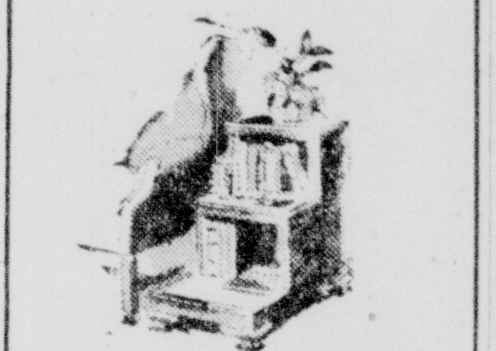

Sheriff Louis A. Gendron said Gene told him he hit his father in their Agassiz Village home to protect his mother, Mrs. Marian Anderson.

Before entering the courtroom Gene told newsmen and police: "In a way I'm sorry and in a way, I'm not. I had to defend my mother."

Judge Alonzo Conant entered a plea of innocent for Gene when the warrant was read. He ordered a continued hearing next Thursday to permit further investigation of the case.

Mrs. Anderson was sitting in the courtroom with her youngest daughter, Judith, four, when the warrant was read. She burst into tears.

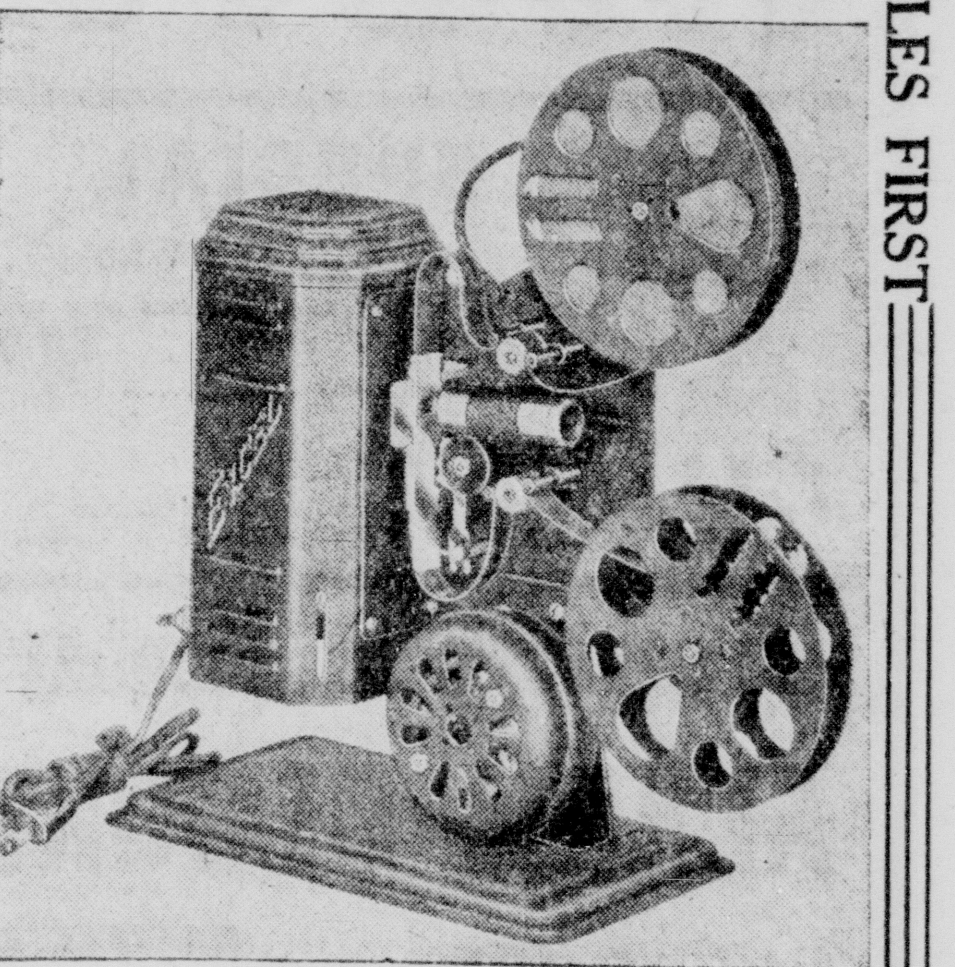

The boy was turned over to custody of Mrs. Josephine Mason, the probation officer. She said she might return him to the care of his mother as is permitted under state law.

Plan To Speed Up U. S. Visas To Alien War Brides

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(INS)—The state department has ordered all diplomatic and consular offices to expedite the issuance of visas to alien war brides to enable them to reach the United States before July 1.

The instructions were issued by President Truman's New Year's Eve proclamation of the "cessation of hostilities of World War II."

The ruling noted that congress passed legislation in 1945 and 1946 to facilitate the admission into the United States of alien spouses, alien minor children and alien fiancées of United States citizens who served in the United States armed forces.

Under the interpretation, these aliens will be entitled to admission in cases where the military service began before 12 noon (EST) Dec. 31, 1946.

Where the citizen was inducted into the armed forces later than noon Dec. 31, 1946, his spouse, child or fiancée will not receive the benefits of the laws.

Man On Trial In 'Honor Slaying'

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25.—(INS)—The trial of Thomas Marino, 40, for the "honor slaying" of his daughter's admirer went into its second day today in Philadelphia quarter sessions court.

The opening session was packed with drama, highlighted by the husky father's tearful breakdown as he heard his oldest daughter, Rosemarie, 18, testify how he shot the youth.

Marino declared he had returned home one night and found the youth, James Landi, 17, together with his 14-year-old daughter, Florence.

His attorney sought to show that Landi's conduct had so incensed the defendant's emotions that he did not know right from wrong. He declared that Marino's mind had "gone blank."

EASY TREATMENT FOR PERK- ING UP FELT HAT

A man's hat is his prize possession, particularly after it has become old and battered. That is when a woman should keep her hands off it. In the meantime, however, she can help to keep it respectable looking, reminds the home economics extension representatives, Pennsylvania State college.

A regular brushing with a hat brush or whisk broom will remove dust. Brush in the direction of the nap and always brush the hat before it will be worn on a rainy or snowy day. This will prevent moisture from making muddy spots on the felt which may be difficult to remove.

If the hat has become quite soiled with fingermarks or smudges of surface dirt, it can be freshened by cleaning with wallpaper cleaner that is about the consistency of putty. When the cleaner is rubbed over the felt, it absorbs dust and dirt but does not remove grease or perspiration.

The cleaning can be followed by steaming lightly over a teakettle. Steaming raises the nap and freshens the felt. Be careful not to get the felt so damp that it loses its shape. After steaming, smooth the nap down with the palm of the hand and be sure the crown and brim are in good shape. Put the hat on a hat stand and allow to dry thoroughly before it is worn. If the hat does not respond to this simple home treatment, it may be cleaned and reblocked by a professional at a small cost.

If the ribbon on the hat is very soiled, it may be sponged with cleaning fluid or replaced with a new ribbon.

A hat that has become very wet with rain or snow needs prompt and careful attention if it is to keep its shape. Shake off as much water as possible, then turn the brim up smoothly all the way around so there are no dips or points in it and punch the crown out of the crown. Allow hat to dry in this position away from heat. Brush thoroughly when dry in this position away from heat. Brush thoroughly when dry and restore hat to the desired shape.

Lutherans Will Have Conference At St. Paul's Church Here

Sunday evening, Feb. 2, National Lutheran Council Churches of New Castle and surrounding vicinity will hold a Workers' Conference at St. Paul's Lutheran church, North Jefferson at Grant street, at 7:45 to urge successful completion of the $10,000,000 Lutheran World Action appeal for relief and rehabilitation in Europe and Asia. It was announced today by Rev. William H. Marburger, New Brighton, chairman of the meeting.

The program for the conference here will include brief statements concerning the current situation in each of the Lutheran World Action causes, including European reconstruction, orphaned missions, refugees, prisoners of war, service to military personnel and Bible distribution. The latest Lutheran world action sound motion picture, "Missions of Mercy," will be shown.

Tax Evasion Charge Faced By Denver Man

DENVER, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Elmer Hartner, wealthy Denver businessman and one of the largest produce dealers in the western portion of the United States, was indicted today by a federal grand jury in Denver on charges of income tax evasion.

Also indicted was a business associate, Robert E. Patterson, on a similar charge.

Both men were named on another indictment for conspiring to evade income taxes.

Hartner, who owns extensive farm and real estate property in Arizona and California, was charged with evading income taxes during the past four years. Amount of the evasion was set at almost $300,000.

Whiskey Rationing Program Ends Today In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's whiskey rationing program ended today after 38 months of operation.

Strict sales limitations and ration books and cards will be eliminated but the distribution of hard-to-get brands will be restricted to one bottle a customer at special sales.

The sales of scarce Scotch, Irish, Canadian and bottled-in-bond brands will be announced later.

Licenses were promised by the board a "fair and proportionate share of the scarce items."

Rationing was instituted for the commonwealth's estimated 4,000,000 consumers on November 15, 1943.

Former Resident Sends Gifts To Children's Home

'Hire Handicapped' Film To Be Shown

Dramatic portrayal of the amazing achievement of disabled veterans in using artificial limbs and other devices, and in performing highly skilled jobs is presented in the film "No Help Wanted," which is being sponsored by the local American Legion post in two New Castle theaters next week.

Showing of the film ties in with the recent campaign sponsored by the New Castle office of the Pennsylvania Employment Service to increase the employment of handicapped veterans in local industry. The picture will be at the Victoria theater on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week and at the Penn theater on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of next week.

What People Say

(By International News Service)
WASHINGTON—Clinton B. Anderson, secretary of agriculture, recommends Commodity Credit Corporation be continued: "The Peoples of the world are hungry and the demand for wheat from China, India and Europe does not depend on the status of our reciprocal trade agreements."

WASHINGTON—Senator Joseph Ball, (R) Minnesota: "It is one of the axioms of a free society that special privileges, legal immunities and irresponsible power corrupt even the best of men, and union leaders are cut human in this respect."

CAMBRIDGE—Dr. James B. Conant, president of Harvard: "Education is contagious. One of the sequences of the present influx of veterans into our colleges and universities will be a demand for the younger brothers and relatives to have similar opportunities."

CHICAGO—Michael J. Flynn, Cook county clerk, proposes to raise the cost of marriage licenses from $3 to $5: "The prospective bridegroom would never feel that $2 hike. When a man's in that condition he's immune to pain."

Farrell Edges New Castle 29-28; Wampum Upsets Bessemer 37-31

Hectic Finish Gives Steelers One-Point Win

Black And Hammond High Scorers In Thrilling Section Three Game Friday

That old Farrell "jinx" is still at work. Last night with 1,200 wild-eyed fans looking on at the Washington High gym floor the Farrell High Steelers' quintet edged the New Castle High "Whiz Kids" 29 to 28, a mere whisker, but that's all it takes is a whisker, at the finish line.

It was New Castle's fourth defeat in Section III and the third Farrell win against two defeats for the Mariners, and one win for the Douglass-coached club.

Local Lead Two Periods
New Castle tried hard, that's one thing. They looked better than Farrell offensively, they had one more field goal, but at the foul line fell down miserably getting but 6 out of 15 tries through the hoops and that's what hurt. Farrell on the other hand made half their fouls, 9 out of 18 and that's what did it.

Farrell started out with a 3 to 1 lead in the first few minutes. New Castle tied it at 3-3 on two fouls by Phil Richards and went ahead to hold a 7 to 5 lead at the end of the first period. Both teams were strictly defensive in their session.

Height Tells Story
New Castle just lacks the height to compete in this man's league. Farrell had a big team and when you don't get the ball on the rebounds you are just out of luck. New Castle has the scrap and are aggressive to the core but not tall enough.

The end of the first-half found the New Castle "Kids" on the long end 12 to 11 in another defensive period in which scoring was held to a minimum. It was 9 to 6 New Castle with the period half over.

Farrell Takes Lead
Farrell grabbed off the lead at the outset of the third period 13 to 12 on a tiebreaker by John Hammond. New Castle regained the lead when it made a field goal and Farrell tied it at 17-17 with about two minutes left, and Hammond's field goal gave them a 19-17 advantage at the end of the stanza.

New Castle was outscored in the third period 8 to 5. Spears and Grubbe were the New Castle subs in the period for Wayne Gray and Phil Richards. Incidentally this chap Gray is going to make the grade. In his first varsity effort with only two days workout he made a field goal but it was his ball handling that delighted the fans and the coaches, being a tricky youngster.

Thrilling Final Period
As is usual the fourth period was a thriller-diller with the score tied at 21-21 in the early moments. With four minutes to play that "sudden death" stage, the New Castle team held a 23 to 22 lead.

Farrell took the lead at 24 to 23 on Nick Cindea's field goal. New Castle went back into the lead at 25 to 24 when Rea caged a fielder. Farrell had the lead again at 26 to 25 on a field goal by Hammond.

With two minutes to play New Castle lost Captain Chuck Rea on fouls at this stage and it hurt New Castle. Jankovich put Farrell ahead 28 to 26. Cindea made a foul for a 29 to 26 count, with the clock running out. Don Spears made a desperate last second field goal and with just seconds to go Farrell got the ball and held it till the buzzer sounded.

Black-Hammond Top Scorers

In the matter of scoring Don Black again led the New Castle team with 10 points, followed by Rea's eight points. Hammond led the Farrell's in tallying with 12 points being the top man in this respect. Defensively young Don Watters again stood out brilliantly, along with Phil Richards, the other starting guard. Watters had a tough night offensively, being unable to make that ball stick in the basket, as he missed shot after shot, by just a hair or so.

Cindea and James were Farrell standouts along with Hammond, each getting six points.

Arnold Here Tuesday

New Castle's next game is Tuesday evening with Arnold high scheduled here in a non-league affair. New Castle defeated Arnold in December at New Kensington floor.

New Castle's next league game in Section Three will be Friday, January 31, with the Douglass quintet playing at Ellwood City. Both New Castle and Ellwood have won one and lost four in loop play.

Second Defeats Epworth Quintet In Church League

First U.P. Defeat St. George Greeks, Trinity Trips Third U.P.

Friday

Second U. P. basketball team, first-half champions, began the race for the second-half title in the Church league by thumping the Epworths 49 to 34 last night with Francis Pitzer running wild to tally 20 points followed by Bob Pizer with 10 and Hall with nine. Wario was best for the losers.

Trinity surprised the Third U. P. 31 to 28 with Eric the outstanding star with 15 points while Copson aided with nine. Keeling and Hanna led the East Siders in scoring.

The First U. P. team paced by Spears and Bob Jackson topped the St. George Greeks 44 to 41 in the third game with Nickie Lucas, E. Hrisoulas and Cogey Othites in starring roles for the Greeks.

Mt. Jackson High Jolts East Brook

Bader, Butler And Emery Star As Eagles Are Smothered By Big 69-34 Count

Mt. Jackson high school's high-powered cagers had little trouble last night on their home floor as they walloped East Brook, 67-34, for their fourth win of the season in Section 21.

Emery with 23, Bader with 21 and Butler with 18, led the "Mounties" scoring onslaught as they romped past the Eagles. For the Hetrick team, Patterson with 12 and Manzo with 10, showed well.

East Brook surprised in the first frame, taking the period, 12-8, but the Brinkley lads swarmed back to pile in 23 markers in the second to lead at the half, 31-19. From there on in the Mounties were never headed.

The prelim went to the home team, also, 30 to 20.

County Sportsmen Stock 240 Rabbits

LCSA Directors Authorize Purchase Of 100 Ringnecks For Law-Enforcement County

Two hundred and forty rabbits were stocked in 10 townships of Lawrence county yesterday by Sheriff Frank Coen, president, and other members of the Lawrence County Sportsmen's association. The rabbits were purchased by the association from a Missouri rabbit farm.

After the stocking had been finished, directors met last night and authorized a purchase by the association of 100 ringneck pheasants and also discussed the proposed purchase of bass and trout for county streams.

The directors announced that the ranges of traps at the association's farm, near Harbor bridge, are available to members. Plans for improving the farm were discussed.

The directors were informed that the membership is growing fast, according to Secretary James Dennis.

Aliquippa Indians Win Fourth In Loop To Remain Threats To Sharon

ELLWOOD MEETS NEW CASTLE NEXT

(Special To The News)

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 25.—Ellwood City's Wolverines provided meat for the Aliquippa Indians' last night at the valley court to the tune of 59 to 37. It was the fourth win for the Quips in Section III as against one defeat and keeps them in the runnerup slot to the undefeated Sharon Tigers.

The Aliquippas went to town in the first period leading 24 to 9 as the hostilities ceased. The half-time score found the Lippe-coached machine leading 38 to 19. Ellwood found the going tough against the tall Indians. Aliquippa led the third period 13 to 10 as Ellwood picked up steam.

Meet New Castle Next

Coach Ted Wallace used 10 men in the game and Eddie O'Hara was high man with nine points, followed by Eady with seven. Big Lloyd Cable and Eddie Suder led the Indians with 10 points apiece.

Ellwood outscored the Indians in the final period 9 to 8 but fell far short although the Wallacemen were in there trying right down to the finish line.

Ellwood's next Section III game is Friday, Jan. 31, with New Castle's "Whiz Kids" billed here. In the preliminary last night the Aliquippa Jayvee team defeated Ellwood City Jayvees 48 to 16. Ellwood and New Castle are tied for sixth place in the league with one win and four defeats apiece.

New Wilmington Nips Princeton

Greyhounds Take Close Battle, 45-43; R. Jones Of Princeton Scores 22 Points

New Wilmington high had to go all out last night at Princeton's court to emerge victorious, 45-43, in a nip and tuck struggle.

Both teams appeared evenly matched as they battled right down to the final foul of the whistle with the issue in doubt. The Greyhounds led at the half, 21-18, and at the end of the third period, 33-28, but the Anderson-coached lads captured the final frame, 15-12, to genuinely score the Eagles' crew.

R. Jones, with 22 markers, was the star of the night, with a 22 total, dumping in his points from all angles of the floor.

Buchanan with 12 and Hartwell and Wilson with 10 each, sparked the Wilmington attack.

The prelim went to the Greyhounds, also, 33-31.

Slaughter Asking For Salary Boost

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 25.—E. N. S. Slaughter, fast-running St. Louis Cardinal outfielder, said Thursday that he expects to sign his 1947 contract next week.

Slaughter said he had reached a tentative agreement with club president Sam Breadon on salary terms. Slaughter received an estimated $12,500 salary last season. At the close of the 1946 season, he said that he would ask a substantial wage increase.

Falcons Schedule Beaver Falls Five

New Castle Polish Falcons will play the Beaver Falls Falcons Sunday at the Falcon Hall on Miller avenue. It was announced by Manager Gabby Kendra today. In the prelim the Falcon "B" team meets the Falcon Old Timers at 2 o'clock.

The Falcons-Beaver Falls series of games, interrupted by the late World War, will see the friendly rivals battling once more for supremacy. The rivalry is being rekindled.

Lions Favored Over Elks Five

"Battle Of Century" At Washington High School Floor This Evening At 8 P. M.

Washington High basketball court tonight will be bulging at the seams for that "battle of the century" that brings the New Castle Elks and New Castle Lions together at 8:00 o'clock.

This game has been talked about for many weeks. The supporters of both teams are confident of winning. The Lions Club with the sensational Pitzer brothers Bob and "Frank" are favored to win, but the Elks have sharpshooter Andrews as their star performer. A lively engagement is looked for.

The answer as to who has the best team will be settled tonight and it is indicated that a packed gym will greet the galaxy of stars who will strive for victory.

Both coaches: Dick Davis of the Lions and "Austie" Cowmeadow of the Elks have signified their approval of the condition of their stars and are ready to start the struggle that has long been awaited in this city.

Bill Pozza Ends Training For Ike

Ellwood Boxer Won First Decision: Two Local Boys On Amateur Card

Bill Pozza, Ellwood City, will end training tomorrow in preparation for his three round amateur bout with the Mel Youngstown, Monday night in The Arena. It will be a return light-heavyweight affair, the Ellwoodian having won the decision in their first bout at Ellwood City.

Guy Elise, New Castle will box Cosmo Santillo, Youngstown, in a heavyweight bout and Bill Bradley, this city, will take on Tony Zelinski, Sharon, in a 160-pound bout. Other bouts scheduled for three rounds follows:

Joe Bellini, Youngstown vs. John Toth, Aliquippa, 160; Eddie Benesch, Youngstown vs. George Butovich, Aliquippa, 175; Chuck Gibbons, Ellwood City vs. Charles Hillson, Youngstown, 145; Billy Myers, Warren vs. Rip Harris, Youngstown, 126 and Mike Gazdony, Ellwood City vs. Carkido, Youngstown.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 25.—(INS)—The name of the 15th talent-seeker was added to the roster of the Cleveland Indians today with the signing of Scout Bill Killefer.

Biddle Stops Bobby Brown

Local Middleweight, Now Managed By Sheppard, To Box In New Haven Monday

Fighting under the management of George Sheppard of New York, Jack Biddle, middleweight of New Castle, made a hit in Boston's Madison Square Garden last night when he knocked out Bobby Brown, of Boston. Biddle dropped Brown with a left hook and when he got up, followed with a right uppercut that knocked Brown out. Biddle will battle Joe Bowman Monday night in New Haven.

Mauriello, Bratton Win
In other bouts last night, Tami Mauriello knocked out John Thomas of New York in the second round in Detroit and Johnny Bratton, Chicago lightweight, won a welterweight decision over Morris, of Brooklyn, in Chicago.

Eddie Collins Jr. Will Help Direct Phils Farm System

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Eddie Collins, Jr., son of the Athletics' star second baseman of some years back, today was signed up with a Philadelphia baseball club—but not the A's.
Young Collins has been appointed assistant director of the Phillies farm system. He played for the A's in 1939, after starting at Yale, but was farmed out to Baltimore the next year and later entered the navy.

Meanwhile, Phil's General Manager Herb Pennock announced the signing of Eddie Goosetree as a scout. Goosetree formerly worked for Detroit and the Chicago Cubs.
The great age attained by Methuselah and other patriarchs of the Bible is accounted for by H. G. Wells in his "Outline of History." He says that the earliest recorded reckoning was by means of moons and generations of men. Thus, if the age of Methuselah were reckoned by lunar months, instead of years, it would bring his age, as well as those of the other patriarchs, down to about the average length of life.

INDIANS REMAIN UNDEFEATED IN CLASS 'B' LOOP

two and one-half minutes of the first period when Madrid sank a fielder and a foul, and Wampum didn't dump one until 3:45 of the period when Procopio hit the bell. Kanagy's foul knotted the count momentarily at 4-4 but the Cementers took the quarter 11-10.

Indians Take Lead

The Hemmon lads continued to play nip and tuck ball in the second frame and pulled even again when Kanagy made it 14-all with a nice lay-up. From here the Redskins went on to pile up their biggest lead of the game thus far, 23-16, but Madrid and Tonya pared the margin to give the Indians only a 23-21 edge at the half.

In the third period the game got hot. Anderson flipped in a foul to make it 23-22, favor of Wampum, and Tonya put the Cementers ahead on a two-throw. 24-23. Jackson caged one to start it again. 24-24, and Lewis put the Indians out front 26-24. Tonya's brace of fouls again tied it up, 26-26, but here Kanagy hit with a long set and a lay-up and the Indians managed to fight out the period in the lead, 32-31.

Protect Margin

With Madrid chased the Cementers were not the same ball team. Their attack was slowed without the diminutive guard moving the ball and setting up chances. Procopio made it 34-31 and Badger hit with a foul to up it to 35-31 and from there on in the Hemmon crew simply played around the floor in a great exhibition of "get it if you can" kind of ball as the seconds ticked off. Badger added the final two points in the final five seconds with a clear lay-up with no one around him to make it 37-31.

The prelim went to the Indians junior varsity, 50-31.

Lineup:
Wampum, G. F. P. Bessemer, G. F. P. Jackson, J. 1 2 Martin, J. 1 1 3 Badger, J. 1 1 2 Anderson, J. 1 1 3 Kanagy, C. 4 3 1 1 Tonya, C. 3 3 3 3 Mohr, J. 0 0 0 Madrid, G. 4 4 1 3 Procopio, J. 3 1 7 Glass, J. 0 0 4 Lewis, G. 1 0 2

Youngstown Judge Raps City Police

YOUNGSTOWN, Jan. 25.—Common Pleas Judge Erskine Maiden, Jr., today vigorously assailed the city administration for failure to provide crime detection equipment, following acquittal of Fred King, 27, in the "silk stocking" slaying of Mrs. Annie Johnson, last October 25.

The judge stated that the trouble isn't with the men, the detectives, but with the higher-ups in the financial situation of the city who fail to provide for proper training of homicide men to detect crime.

Bids—Repairing Of Dockets

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has approved a proposal of the County Commissioners to invite sealed bids for the repairing and rebinding of the dockets needing such attention in the office of the Recorder of Deeds and also in the office of the Prothonotary, being three hundred ninety-nine (399) volumes, more or less, all itemized in statement now on file in the office of the County controller and consisting of three classes:

(a) Thirty-four (34) volumes, more or less, shall be re-treated according to the Clyde H. Campbell et al. patented process, and shall be transferred to loose leaf by the M. R. Hultman patented process or by some other method of treatment and process satisfactory to the County Commissioners of the County of Lawrence as to which any prospective bidder would have the right to make a bid fully stating the treatment and process proposed to be used.

(b) Thirty-three (33) volumes, more or less, shall be transferred to loose leaf by the M. R. Hultman patented process or by some other process satisfactory to the County Commissioners of the County of Lawrence as to which any prospective bidder would have the right to make a bid fully stating the process proposed to be used.

(c) Three hundred twenty-four (324) volumes, more or less, to be rebound by the Hultman Brothers patented process or by some other process satisfactory to the County Commissioners of the County of Lawrence as to which any prospective bidder would have the right to make a bid fully stating the process proposed to be used.

All rail, torn or mutilated pages are to be restored to their original size and shape by welding in new paper of the proper grade and thickness wherever any portion is missing, and in such a way that a pen point will glide over the union without catching, and there is to be no added thickness.

In torn and mutilated pages where surface repairs would interfere with legibility, repairs are to be made between the written and printed portions so that they are entirely invisible and permanent, and in such a way that there shall be no added thickness.

All workmanship and material used in the repair of the dockets shall be of the best quality and shall be graded and available for such purpose. The Register of Wills and Recorder of Deeds shall have the right to inspect and approve of the work done, and all work pertaining to the restoration of these records shall be done in accordance with the specifications provided by the County Commissioners, and all records thus being repaired shall be returned to the public for use at all times during office hours and all member of the public shall have access to said records under normal conditions shall be treated with due courtesy by the County Commissioners.

The Register of Wills, the Recorder of Deeds and the Prothonotary, are hereby authorized and empowered to do so, shall have the right to call on the contractor to furnish a bond in the amount of $10,000 as a guarantee that it will accept the same and enter into a written contract with the County of Lawrence, Pennsylvania, to do said work in accordance with the above specifications and proposal.

With all bids, there must be submitted a statement of the bidder's experience and ability of the bidder to satisfactorily execute the contract, and the bidder shall be required to furnish a bond in the amount of $10,000 as a guarantee that it will accept the same and enter into a written contract with the County of Lawrence, Pennsylvania, to do said work in accordance with the above specifications and proposal.

Each bidder will be required to furnish a bond in the amount of $10,000 as a guarantee that it will accept the same and enter into a written contract with the County of Lawrence, Pennsylvania, to do said work in accordance with the above specifications and proposal.

The successful bidder will be required to sign a contract warranting to complete the work herein specified on or before the 1st day of July, 1947, and to give a bond in the amount of his bid guaranteeing the completion and performance of the contract and also a bond in one-half of the amount of the bid for the protection of workmen and material as provided by law, both bonds to be with surety to be approved by the County Commissioners.

Each bidder who submitted in a sealed envelope plainly marked "Bids—Repairing of Dockets" and with the name of the bidder and the name of the office on or before February 14, 1947, at 12:00 noon, shall be entitled to have his bid opened publicly in the Assembly Room of the County Commissioners in the Court House, New Castle, Pa.

Signed: Andrew M. Dodds, Register of Wills, County Controller, Legal—News—Jan. 25, 1947.

STOCK TRADING RATHER LIGHT

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(INS)—

Stocks took on a ragged appearance in the second hour of trading today after a firm opening. Transactions were light.

Minor gains and losses were fairly evenly distributed with the motor division subjected to light, but steady selling.

A bright spot in the day's news was the extending of the steel war contract.

Chrysler turned downward by nearly a point after opening higher and General Motors slipped behind a minus sign. Steels near the close were unchanged to a shade higher. Santa Fe fell a point, and mixed rail section, chemicals and iron and steel along with rubbers, aviation and oils.

Bonds and curb shares drifted in irregular fashion.

Adjustment In Tax Assessment

Little Beaver Township Assessor Makes New Tax Valuation On One Property

OTHER NEWS OF COUNTY COURT

Appearing before the board of county commissioners Friday morning, Assessor Homer T. Nicely of Little Beaver Township adjusted the assessment upon the property of Mike Dugan upwards. The assessment upon the home, the eleven acres and the buildings was raised from $1245 to $1895.

Mr. Nicely was called in to explain why the assessment was so low and replied at the first meeting that he thought the assessment was fair. The commissioners felt the total was too low and ordered an adjustment. The buildings include a home which Mr. Nicely says is a log cabin sheathed with artificial brick veneer. This he raised in assessment from $200 to $400. The assessment upon the eleven acres, $495, he did not touch.

The assessment upon the stable was left at $50, one cement block building was raised from $300 to $500, on a frame and tile building from $200 to $300 and upon a sheet iron building an assessment of $150 was placed.

The commissioners received the adjusted assessment and laid it upon the table. Action will be had upon it later with perhaps the commissioners themselves doing a little more adjusting.

RECKLESS DRIVING

Friend Peebles, a truck driver, was before Judge W. Walter Braham Friday upon a reckless driving charge. The state police claimed he had driven his truck faster than he should and when he approached a wreck had to turn off the highway and run along a field in order to avoid another crash.

After hearing the testimony, Judge Braham held he was guilty of reckless driving and fined him $10 and costs.

TUBERCULOSIS SOCIETIES

Americans do not like to be pushed around. We like to find out what is the best thing to do, then go ahead and do it.

We like to do things of our own accord and in our own way. We do not like to be bossed very much.

U. S. A. is the healthiest country in the world. This is largely due to the fact that our citizens look after health problems themselves.

Health departments do a lot of good work. They help to keep people healthy.

Tuberculosis societies and infirmity societies and granges and other organizations are very helpful in looking after the public health.

They each work in their own way. They are tremendously interested. They do a lot of good.

Mine Workers To Appeal Decision On Compensation

Unemployment Compensation Board Denies Jobless Benefits To Miners During Strike

HARRISBURG, Jan. 25.—(INS)—The United Mine Workers of America (AFL) today planned to appeal the unemployment compensation board of review's refusal to grant jobless benefits to 50,000 bituminous miners idled in strikes during the fall of 1945.

Lester Thomas of Harrisburg, legislative representative, said the appeals would be filed in the superior court by Pennsylvania districts two, three, four and five. They will have until March 4 to act.

The second decision reaffirmed a refusal on grounds that mine supervisors who precipitated the month-long strikes September 22, 1945, were UMW members. It was issued on an individual rather than blanket basis.

The decision applied to the claim of James Prentice of Yatesboro, one of 129 test cases, but the board explained it established a "yardstick" for deciding others.

Other claims will be held in abeyance until a final decision is issued by the appellate court, a board spokesman reported.

General Hershey Retires Because Of Poor Health

Selective Service Chief Found Unqualified Physically For Regular Army

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(INS)—The War department disclosed Friday that Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, has been retired from active duty because of physical disability.

It was revealed that since January 1 the war-time draft chief has been serving on "limited duty" only. His changed status was directed by President Truman.

Hershey, a temporary major general, was said to have found "physically disqualified for promotion to the grade of colonel in the regular army."

The nature of Hershey's poor health was not revealed but his disability assertedly was incurred while serving in his temporary rank. For this reason he is placed on limited service rolls with the grade and pay of major general.

Threat Note Victim Granddaughter Of Mrs. Mary Collins

Subject Of $5000 Ransom Note Threat Had Visited In Collins Home Here Last Sunday

Picking up The News, Friday evening, Mrs. Mary E. Collins, 411 Epworth street, learned that her granddaughter, Miss Ruth Ann Beck, of Weirton, W. Va., was the target of a kidnap threat in which $5,000 in cash must be forthcoming or "something will happen."

Twelve year old Miss Beck, with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, of Weirton, had visited the Collins family last Sunday afternoon, and at that time never surmised that anyone would make a threat against their niece who made her home with them in West Virginia.

To learn more of the details of the case, Woodson W. Collins, Mrs. Collins' son, called the Andersons' by telephone on Friday evening. He was told that the couple found the threat note on their front porch and after notifying the authorities, wrapped up a "decoy" package and left it in a Weirton Bus station. The note writer never picked up the package.

Miss Beck is being closely guarded so as to prevent her kidnapping. Her home is also being watched by the police night and day.

Earlier this week, a nearby Pottsville, W. Va., family had received a $10,000 threat note against their three year old son.

Superintendent Haas Upholds Dismissal Of School Teacher

HARRISBURG, Jan. 25.—(INS)—The dismissal of Llewellyn Coble, a Metal township high school teacher accused of persistent negligence, today was upheld by Superintendent of Public Instruction Francis B. Haas.

Haas sustained a decision of the school board issued following a hearing August 5. The board, Haas said, had found that Coble failed to comply with the principal's requirement that teachers be in the building 30 minutes before the opening of the Franklin county school.

Coble was charged with failure to maintain proper order among students in the classrooms, he added. The former science and mathematics teachers claimed he had difficulty reaching the school on time because he lived 15 miles away, Haas explained.

Coble also contended he carried a "heavy instructional load" and did not have sufficient time to attend to the matter of pupils' department.

State Medical Society Approves Duff's Program

HARRISBURG, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff's proposed state department of mental health was applauded today by the Pennsylvania Medical society.

A legislative sub-committee also endorsed a recommendation that the state's 10 medical and surgical hospitals be transferred from the welfare to the health department. Improved working conditions to attract qualified medical personnel was urged by the society.

Chairman C. O. Palmer of Pittsburgh called for increased salaries and job security systems, similar to civil service, to encourage trained professional personnel to "make a career of public health."

Improved facilities were demanded for the health and welfare departments and surveys recommended to determine the state's health and welfare needs.

New Bessemer Pastor Will Assume Duties On Sunday, March 9

Rev. Alome Ahlstedt of Kansas will begin his duties Sunday, March 9, at the Swedish Covenant Mission church in Bessemer.

Rev. Ahlstedt will succeed the Rev. Clarence Satterbloom, who has already assumed his new duties at a Swedish church in Alert, Kas.

Sunday evening, at 7:30, the Christian Business Men's committee of New Castle will have charge of the service in the Bessemer church. Dr. R. W. Baum will be in charge.

There's a feeling of satisfaction in having all Old Year bills paid as the New Year begins. See us for the cash to "square them up." Prompt, courteous service.
